FTWTF means: Find The Word That Fits

Power Text

"Now that I, your Lord & Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet. I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you" John 13:14, 15, NIV

Power Point

We share God's love with others when we serve them.

8. "There he is!" exclaimed Peter. "Just as Jesus said." "Where?" asked John. "Near the basket vendor. See? He's carrying a water jar," said Peter.

11. As Jesus had instructed them, Peter said, "The teacher asks: 'Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?'"
13. [Tuesday's lesson] Read John 13:1-5. Verse 1 said that Jesus "showed them the full extent of his love." How was washing their feet showing them His love? Why didn't He give them gifts such as money, land, or clothing instead? What do you do to show friends your love?

Down

1. [Sunday's lesson] Talk with an adult about what servants usually do in your country. Ask Jesus to show you how you can be a servant to others.
2. The men crowded into the room, surveyed the arrangements & argued over who was going to sit where. They didn't even notice when Jesus walked in, looking sad.
3. Jesus slowly made His way around the group & lovingly washed & dried each man's feet.
4. Looking at Jesus, they waited for Him to say something. The silence seemed to last forever. Then Jesus stood up, took off His outer coat, & wrapped a towel around His waist.
6. "I have given you an example that I want you to follow," said Jesus. "I'm your teacher & I washed your feet. You must also be willing to serve each other. Don't think you're too good to serve your brothers. If you do, you'll miss a blessing."
7. "No, that's not necessary, Peter. You've been baptized already. You just need to daily ask for & receive forgiveness for your sins." Peter sat back, his face started to let go of its frown, & he allowed Jesus to finish.
10. Entering the room, Peter & John looked around. There wasn't a lot to do, but they were glad that they came when they did. They arranged the tables & placed the cushions so that everyone could recline comfortably.
