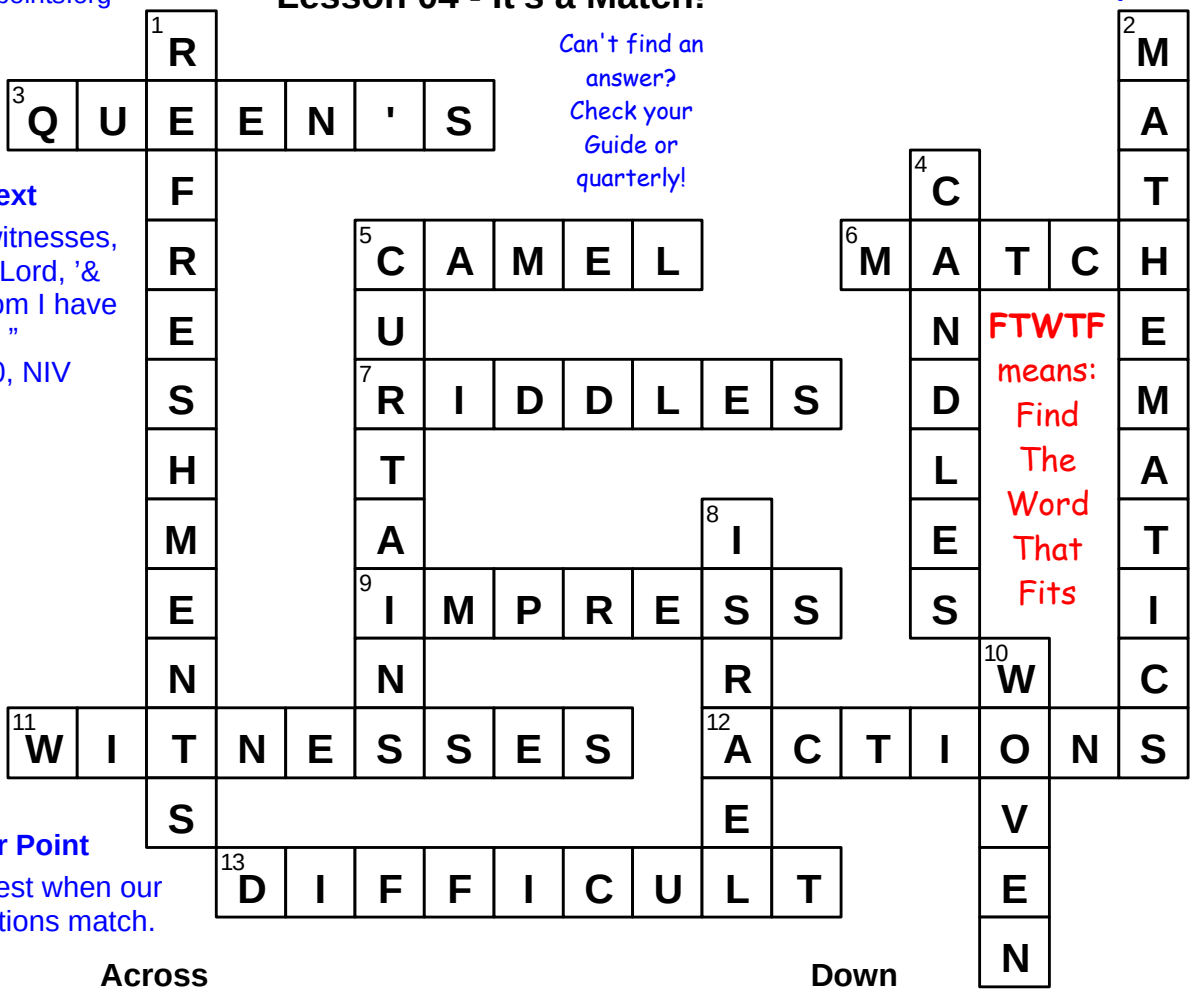
Lesson 04 - It's a Match!

Can't find an answer? Check your Guide or quarterly!

Power Text

" 'You are my witnesses, ' declares the Lord, '& my servant whom I have chosen' "
Isaiah 43:10, NIV



Power Point

We serve best when our words & actions match.

Across

3. The caravan swept into Jerusalem & halted in front of the palace. The queen's attendants helped her down. After exchanging pleasantries with the prime minister of Israel, the royal party was led to the guest wing of the palace.
5. The ceaseless swaying of the camel & the warmth of the day had lulled the queen into a state of semisleep. The journey from Sheba at the southern tip of Arabia had been long.
6. FTWTF - Title
7. For months before leaving her country the queen had instructed the wisest men in her kingdom to prepare difficult questions & ____ for Solomon.
9. [Monday's lesson] Read 1 Kings 10:1-5. Think of two or three other reasons the queen of Sheba may have wanted to visit Solomon. What amazed her? Why? Pray Ask God to ____ you with how people behave rather than what they have.
11. FTWTF - Power Text
12. FTWTF - Power Point
13. [Tuesday's lesson] Read 1 Kings 10:6-9 carefully. Think of three ____ questions you would like to ask someone you consider wise.

Down

1. The king's personal staff served refreshments & helped them get comfortable.
2. No limits had been put on the questions they could create. They had chosen a variety of questions from science, literature, ____, history, music, philosophy, & religion. During the meal the queen casually asked Solomon the questions.
4. Thousands of ____ flickered throughout the room. The aroma of fresh flowers & perfectly cooked delicacies wafted through the room as she walked toward King Solomon.
5. Everything was more beautiful than she had imagined. The ____ looked like spun gold.
8. "Since coming here & meeting you & your people, I have found that it is all true. I give praise to your God who placed you on the throne. He must truly love ____ to give you so much wisdom in governing this kingdom. I must learn more about Him."
10. As she rode away from the palace the next morning, the queen of Sheba reviewed all that she had seen & heard. Like a perfectly ____ piece of cloth, it all matched.

© 2012 General Conference Sabbath School Department