"Yet to all who did receive him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God" (John 1:12).

"The Spirit of the Sovereign Lord is on me, because the Lord has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim freedom for the captives and release from darkness for the prisoners" (Isaiah 61:1).

"In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven" (Matthew 5:16).

"How good and pleasant it is when God's people live together in unity!" (Psalm 133:1).

"A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for a time of adversity" (Proverbs 17:17).

"Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassion and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves receive from God" (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4).

"Surely God is my salvation; I will trust and not be afraid. The Lord, the Lord himself, is my strength and my defense; he has become my salvation" (Isaiah 12:2).

"We have different gifts, according to the grace given to each of us. If your gift is prophesying, then prophesy in accordance with your faith" (Romans 12:6).

"The King will reply, 'Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me'" (Matthew 25:40).

"I know that my redeemer lives, and that in the end he will stand on the earth. And after my skin has been destroyed, yet in my flesh I will see God" (Job 19:25, 26).

"Jesus said to her, 'I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die; and whoever lives by believing in me will never die. Do you believe this?'" (John 11:25, 26).

"For the Lord himself will come down from heaven, with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet call of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first" (1 Thessalonians 4:16).

"But I have prayed for you, Simon, that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers" (Luke 22:32).

This Bible study guide is about:

Learning to reflect God’s love in our relationships.
Jesus taught us how to live in harmony with everyone.

Making a difference by helping others wherever we are.
When Jesus’ love fills us, we treat others with compassion.

God’s all-sufficient love.
Regardless of the hopeless situations we may be facing, God’s love always reaches out to help us through and give us hope.

God’s forgiveness when we fail Him.
We acknowledge our failures, ask for God’s forgiveness, and allow Him to change us for the future He has planned for us.

These guides were developed to:

A. Review the Sabbath School lesson. In preparation for Sabbath School, students will study the Bible lesson during the week. On Sabbath you will review the lesson and will help them elaborate on it. This process will strengthen in students a sense of accountability and will facilitate a deeper spiritual understanding of the content.

B. Reach each student in the way he or she learns best. By following the natural learning cycle on which these outlines were based, you will connect students with the weekly “power text” and “power point” in ways that capture their attention and imagination.

C. Repeat the “power text” often in Sabbath School. Allow frequent opportunities for students to share the Bible memory text.
D. Focus on one "power point." These "power points" relate to one of the following four dynamics: grace (God loves me), worship (I love God), community (we love one another), and service (God loves you too).

E. Give students opportunities to engage in active learning experiences so that they can more readily internalize the truths being presented. These experiences are followed by debriefing sessions, in which you ask questions that lead students to reflect on what they experienced, interpret the experience, and apply that information to their lives.

F. Accommodations for students with special needs. Some of the activities listed in this guide may be challenging for students with special needs. Therefore, accommodations are included for some of the activities. Utilize these resources or use other strategies to meet the needs of your learners. For a list of special needs and corresponding accommodations, visit www.juniorpowerpoints.org/article/4/resources#.VGUZIYdSxx4. These tools will help you promote inclusion in your Sabbath School class.

G. Involve the Sabbath School staff in new and flexible ways. Enlist leaders/teachers with different personal learning styles.
TO USE THIS GUIDE

- Try to follow the natural learning sequence outlined, but adapt it as necessary to make the program work in your particular situation.

- Look ahead at the Program Notes for each week’s program so that you can be prepared with the simple materials suggested.

1 Holy Scriptures: The Holy Scriptures, Old and New Testaments, are the written Word of God, given by divine inspiration. The inspired authors spoke and wrote as they were moved by the Holy Spirit. In this Word, God has committed to humanity the knowledge necessary for salvation. The Holy Scriptures are the supreme, authoritative, and infallible revelation of His will. They are the standard of character, the test of experience, the definitive revealer of doctrines, and the trustworthy record of God’s acts in history. (Ps. 119:105; Prov. 30:5, 6; Isa. 8:20; John 17:17; 1 Thess. 2:13; 2 Tim. 3:16; 17; Heb. 4:12; 2 Peter 1:20, 21.)

2 Trinity: There is one God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, a unity of three coeternal Persons. God is immortal, all-powerful, all-knowing, above all, and ever present. He is infinite and beyond human comprehension, yet known through His self-revelation. God, who is love, is forever worthy of worship, adoration, and service by the whole creation. (Gen. 1:26; Deut. 6:4; Isa. 6:8; Matt. 28:19; John 3:16; 2 Cor. 1:21, 22; 13:14; Eph. 4:4-6; 1 Peter 1:2.)

3 Father: God the eternal Father is the Creator, Source, Sustainer, and Sovereign of all creation. He is just and holy, merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness. The qualities and powers exhibited in the Son and the Holy Spirit are also those of the Father. (Gen. 1:1; Deut. 4:35; Ps. 110:1, 4; John 3:16, 14:9; 1 Cor. 15:28; 1 Tim. 1:17; 1 John 4:8; Rev. 4:11.)

4 Son: God the eternal Son became incarnate in Jesus Christ. Though Him all things were created, the character of God is revealed, the salvation of humanity is accomplished, and the world is judged. Forever truly God, He became also truly human, Jesus the Christ. He was conceived of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. He lived and experienced temptation as a human being, but perfectly exemplified the righteousness and love of God. By His miracles He manifested God’s power and was attested as God’s promised Messiah. He suffered and died voluntarily on the cross for our sins and in our place, was raised from the dead, and ascended to heaven to minister in the heavenly sanctuary in our behalf. He will come again in glory for the final deliverance of His people and the restoration of all things. (Isa. 53:4-6; Dan. 9:25-27; Luke 1:35; John 1:1-3, 14; 5:22; 10:30; 14:1-3, 9, 13; Rom. 6:23; 1 Cor. 15:3, 4; 2 Cor. 3:18; 5:17-19; Phil. 2:5-11; Col. 1:15-19; Heb. 2:9-18; 8:1, 2.)

5 Holy Spirit: God the eternal Spirit was active with the Father and the Son in Creation, incarnation, and redemption. He is as much a person as are the Father and the Son. He inspired the writers of Scripture. He filled Christ’s life with power. He draws and convicts human beings, and those who respond He renews and transforms into the image of God. Sent by the Father and the Son to be always with His children, He extends spiritual gifts to the church, empowers it to bear witness to Christ, and in harmony with the Scriptures leads it into all truth. (Gen. 1:1, 2; 2 Sam. 23:2; Ps. 11:11; Isa. 61:1; Luke 1:35; 4:18; John 14:16-18, 26; 15:26; 16:7-13; Acts 1:8; 5:3; 10:38; Rom. 5:5; 1 Cor. 12:7-11; 2 Cor. 3:18; 2 Peter 1:2.)

6 Creation: God has revealed in Scripture the authentic and historical account of His creative activity. He created the universe, and in a recent six-day creation the Lord made “the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them” and rested on the seventh day. Thus He established the Sabbath as a perpetual memorial of the work He performed and completed during six literal days that together with the Sabbath constituted the same unit of time that we call a week today. The first man and woman were made in the image of God as the crowning work of Creation, given dominion over the world, and charged with responsibility to care for it. When the world was finished, it was “very good,” declaring the glory of God. (Gen. 1:1-2; 5:11; Ex. 20:8-11; Ps. 19:1-6; 33:6, 9; 104; Isa. 45:12, 18; Acts 17:24; Col. 1:16; Heb. 1:2; 11:3; Rev. 10:6; 14:7.)

7 Nature of Humanity: Man and woman were made in the image of God with individuality, the power and freedom to think and to do. Though created free beings, each is an indivisible unity of body, mind, and spirit, dependent upon God for life and breath and all else. When our first parents disobeyed God, they denied their dependence upon Him and fell from their high position. The image of God in them was marred, and they became subject to death. Their descendants share this fallen nature and its consequences. They are born with weaknesses and tendencies to evil. But God in Christ reconciled the world to Himself and by His Spirit restores in repentant mortals the image of their Maker. Created for the glory of God, they are called to love Him and one another, and to care for their environment. (Gen. 1:26-28; 27, 15; 3; Ps. 8:4-8; 51:5, 10; 58:3, Jer. 17:9; Acts 17:24-28; Rom. 5:12-17; 2 Cor. 5:19, 20; Eph. 2:3; 1 Thess. 5:23; 1 John 3:4; 4:7, 8, 11, 20.)

8 The Great Controversy: All humanity is now involved in a great controversy between Christ and Satan regarding the character of God, His law, and His sovereignty over the universe. This conflict originated in heaven when a created being, endowed with the freedom of choice, in self-exaltation became Satan, God’s adversary, and led into rebellion a portion of the angels. He introduced the spirit of rebellion into this world when he led Adam and Eve into sin. This human sin resulted in the distortion of the image of God in humanity, the disordering of the created world, and its eventual devastation at the time of the global flood, as presented in the historical account of Genesis 1-11. Observed by the whole creation, this world became the arena of the universal conflict, out of which the God of love will ultimately be vindicated. To assist His people in this controversy, Christ sends the Holy Spirit and the loyal angels to guide, protect, and sustain them in the way of salvation. (Gen. 3:6-8; Job 1:6-12; Isa. 14:12-14; Eze. 28:12-18; Rom. 1:19-32; 3:4; 5:12-21; 8:19-22; 1 Cor. 4:9; Heb. 1:14; 1 Peter 5:8; 2 Peter 3:6; Rev. 12:4-9.)

9 The Life, Death, and Resurrection of Christ: In Christ’s life of perfect obedience to God’s will, His suffering, death, and resurrection, God provided the only means of atonement for human sin, so that those who by faith accept this atonement may have eternal life, and the whole creation may better understand the infinite and holy love of the Creator. This perfect atonement vindicates the righteousness of God’s law and the graciousness of His character; for it both condemns our sin and provides for our forgiveness. The death of Christ is substitutionary and expiatory, reconciling and transforming. The bodily resurrection of Christ proclaims God’s triumph over the forces of evil, and for those who accept the atonement assures their final victory over sin and death. It declares the Lordship of Jesus Christ, before whom every knee in heaven and on earth will bow. (Gen. 3:15; Ps. 22:5; Isa. 53; John 3:16, 14:30; Rom. 1:4; 3:25; 4:25; 8:3; 4:1 Cor. 15:3, 4, 20-22; 2 Cor. 5:14, 15, 19-21; Phil. 2:6-11; Col. 2:15; 1 Peter 2:21, 22; 1 John 2:2, 4:10.)

10 The Experience of Salvation: In infinite love and mercy God made Christ, who knew no sin, to be sin for us, so that in Him we might be made the righteousness of God. Led by the Holy Spirit, we sense our need, acknowledge our sinfulness, repent of our transgressions, and exercise faith in Jesus as Saviour and Lord, Substitute and Example. This saving faith comes through the divine power of the Word and is the gift of God’s grace. Through Christ we are justified, adopted as God’s sons and daughters, and delivered from the lordship of sin. Through the Spirit we are born again and sanctified; the Spirit renewes our minds, writes God’s law of love in our hearts, and we are given the power to live a holy life. Abiding in Him, we become partakers of the divine nature and have the assurance of salvation now and in the judgment. (Rom. 3:21-26; Gal. 2:6-11; Col. 2:15; 1 Peter 2:21, 22; 1 John 2:2, 4:10;)

The Church: The church is the community of believers who confess Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour. In continuity with the people of God in Old Testament times, we are called out from the world; and we join together for worship, for fellowship, for instruction in the Word, for the celebration of the Lord’s Supper, for service to humanity, and for the worldwide proclamation of the gospel. The church derives its authority from Christ, who is the incarnate Word revealed in the Scriptures. The church is God’s family; adopted by Him as children, its members live on the basis of the new covenant. The church is the body of Christ, a community of faith in which Christ Himself is the Head. The church is the bride for whom Christ died that He might sanctify and cleanse her. At His return in triumph, He will present her to Himself a glorious church, the faithful of all the ages, the purchase of His blood, not having spot or wrinkle, but holy and without blemish. (Gen. 12:1-3; Ex. 19:3-7; Matt. 16:13-20; 18:18; 28:19, 20; Acts 2:38-42; 7:38; Eph. 1:22, 23; 2:19-22; 3:8-11; 5:23-27; Col. 1:17, 18; 1 Peter 2:9.)

13 The Remnant and Its Mission: The universal church is composed of all who truly believe in Christ, but in the last days, a time of widespread apostasy, a remnant has been called out to keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus. This remnant announces the arrival of the judgment hour, proclaims salvation through Christ, and heralds the approach of His second advent. This proclamation is symbolized by the three angels of Revelation 14; it coincides with the work of judgment in heaven and results in a work of repentance and reform on earth. Every believer is called to have a personal part in this worldwide witness. (Dan. 7:9-14; Isa. 1:19; 11:1; Jer. 23:3; Micah 2:12; 2 Cor. 5:10; 1 Peter 1:16-19; 4:17; 2 Peter 3:10-14; Jude 3, 14; Rev. 12:17, 14:6-12; 18:1-4.)

14 Unity in the Body of Christ: The church is one body with many members, called from every nation, kindred, tongue, and people. In Christ we are a new creation; distinctions of race, culture, learning, and nationality, and differences between high and low, rich and poor, male and female, must not be divisive among us. We are all equal in Christ, who by one Spirit has bonded us into one fellowship with Him and with one another; we are to serve and be served without partiality or reservation. Through the revelation of Jesus Christ in the Scriptures we share the same faith and hope, and reach out in one witness to all. This unity has its source in the oneness of the triune God, who has adopted us as His children. (Ps. 133:1; Matt. 28:19, 20; John 17:20-23; Acts 17:26, 27; Rom. 12:4, 5; 1 Cor. 12:14-18; 2 Cor. 5:16, 17; Gal. 3:27-29; Eph. 2:11-13; 4:3-6; 11-16; Col. 3:10-15.)

15 Baptism: By baptism we confess our faith in the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, and testify of our death to sin and of our purpose to walk in newness of life. Thus we acknowledge Christ as Lord and Saviour, become His people, and are received as members by His church. Baptism is a symbol of our union with Christ, the forgiveness of our sins, and our reception of the Holy Spirit. It is by immersion in water and is contingent on an affirmation of faith in Jesus and evidence of repentance of sin. It follows instruction in the Holy Scriptures and acceptance of their
16 The Lord’s Supper: The Lord’s Supper is a participation in the emblems of the body and blood of Jesus as an expression of faith in Him, our Lord and Saviour. In this experience of communion Christ is present to meet and strengthen His people. As we partake, we joyfully proclaim the Lord’s death until He comes again. Preparation for the Supper includes self-examination, repentance, and confession. The Master ordained the service of foot washing to signify renewed cleansing, to express a willingness to serve one another in Christlike humility, and to unite our hearts in love. The communion service is open to all believing Christians. (Matt. 26:17-30; John 6:48-63; 13:1-17, 17, 11:23-30; Rev. 3:20.)

17 Spiritual Gifts and Ministries: God bestows upon all members of His church in every age spiritual gifts that each member is to employ in loving ministry for the common good of the church and of humanity. Given by the agency of the Holy Spirit, these gifts provide all abilities and ministries needed by the church to fulfill its divinely ordained functions. According to the Scriptures, these gifts include such ministries as faith, healing, prophecy, proclamation, teaching, administration, reconciliation, compassion, and self-sacrificing service and charity for the help and encouragement of people. Some members are called of God and endowed by the Spirit for functions recognized by the church in pastoral, evangelistic, and teaching ministries particularly needed to equip the members for service, to build up the church to spiritual maturity, and to foster unity of the faith and knowledge of God. When members employ these spiritual gifts as faithful stewards of God’s varied grace, the church is protected from the destructive influence of false doctrine, grows with a sense of need for a Saviour. Salvation is all of grace and not of works, and its fruit is obedience to the Ten Commandments. This obedience develops Christian character and results in a sense of well-being. It is evidence of our love for the Lord and our concern for our fellow human beings. The obedience of faith demonstrates the power of Christ to transform lives, and therefore strengthens Christian witness. (Ex. 20:1-17; Deut. 5:17-20; 22:36-40; John 14:15; 15:7-10; Rom. 8:3, 4; Eph. 2:8-10; Heb. 8:8-10; 1 John 2:3, 5, 3, Rev. 12:17; 14:12.)

18 The Gift of Prophecy: The Scriptures testify that one of the gifts of the Holy Spirit is prophecy. This gift is an identifying mark of the remnant church, and we believe it was manifested in the ministry of Ellen G. White. Her writings speak with prophetic authority and provide comfort, guidance, instruction, and correction to the church. They also make clear that the Bible is the standard by which all teaching and experience must be tested. (Num. 12:6; 2 Chron. 20:20; Amos 3:7; Joel 2:28, 29; Acts 2:14-21; 2 Tim. 3:16, 17; Heb. 1:1-3; Rev. 12:17; 19:10; 22:8, 9.)

19 The Law of God: The great principles of God’s law are embodied in the Ten Commandments and exemplified in the life of Christ. They express God’s love, will, and purposes concerning human conduct and relationships and are binding upon all people in every age. These precepts are the basis of God’s covenant with His people and the standard in God’s judgment. Through the agency of the Holy Spirit they point out sin and awaken a sense of need for a Saviour. Salvation is all of grace and not of works, and its fruit is obedience to the Ten Commandments. This obedience develops Christian character and results in a sense of well-being. It is evidence of our love for the Lord and our concern for our fellow human beings. The obedience of faith demonstrates the power of Christ to transform lives, and therefore strengthens Christian witness. (Ex. 20:1-17; Deut. 5:17-20; 22:36-40; John 14:15; 15:7-10; Rom. 8:3, 4; Eph. 2:8-10; Heb. 8:8-10; 1 John 2:3, 5, 3, Rev. 12:17; 14:12.)

20 The Sabbath: The gracious Creator, after the six days of Creation, rested on the seventh day and instituted the Sabbath for all people as a memorial of Creation. The fourth commandment of God’s unchangeable law requires the observance of this seventh-day Sabbath as the day of rest, worship, and ministry in harmony with the teaching and practice of Jesus, the Lord of the Sabbath. The Sabbath is a day of delightfull communion with God and one another. It is a symbol of our redemption in Christ, a sign of our sanctification, a token of our spiritual maturity, and a foretaste of our eternal future in God’s kingdom. The Sabbath is God’s perpetual sign of His eternal covenant between Him and His people. Joyful observance of this holy time from evening to evening, sunset to sunset, is a celebration of God’s creative and redemptive acts. (Gen. 2:1-3; Ex. 20:8-11; 31:13-17; Lev. 23:32; Deut. 5:12-15; Isa. 56:5-6; 58:13, 14; Ezek. 20:12, 20; Matt. 12:1-12; Mark 1:32; Luke 4:16; Heb. 4:1-11.)

21 Stewardship: We are God’s stewards, entrusted by Him with time and opportunities, abilities and possessions, and the blessings of the earth and its resources. We are responsible to Him for their proper use. We acknowledge God’s ownership by faithful service to Him and our fellow human beings and by returning tithe and giving offerings for the proclamation of His gospel and the support and growth of His church. Stewardship is a privilege given to us by God for nurture in love and the victory over selfishness and covetousness. Stewards rejoice in the blessings that come to others as a result of their faithfulness. (Gen. 1:26-28; 2:15; 1 Chron. 29:14; Haggai 1:3-11; Mal. 3:8-12; Matt. 23:23; Rom. 15:26, 27; 1 Cor. 9:9-14; 2 Cor. 8:1-15; 9:7.)

22 Christian Behavior: We are called to be a godly people who think, feel, and act in harmony with biblical principles in all aspects of personal and social life. For the Spirit to recreate in us the character of our Lord we involve ourselves only in those things that will produce Christlike purity, health, and joy in our lives. This means that our amusement and entertainment should meet the highest standards of Christian taste and beauty. While recognizing cultural differences, our dress is to be simple, modest, and neat, befitting those whose true beauty does not consist of outward adornment but in the imperishable ornament of a gentle and quiet spirit. It also means that because our bodies are the temples of the Holy Spirit, we are to care for them intelligently. Along with adequate exercise and rest, we are to adopt the most healthful diet possible and abstain from the unclean foods identified in the Scriptures. Since alcoholic beverages, tobacco, and the irresponsible use of drugs and narcotics are harmful to our bodies, we are to abstain from them as well. Instead, we are to engage in whatever brings our thoughts and bodies into the discipline of Christ, who desires our wholesomeness, joy, and goodness. (Gen. 7:2; Ex. 20:15; Lev. 11:1-47; Ps. 106:3; Rom. 12:1, 2; 1 Cor. 6:19, 20; 10:31; 2 Cor.
23 Marriage and the Family: Marriage was divinely established in Eden and affirmed by Jesus to be a lifelong union between a man and a woman in loving companionship. For the Christian a marriage commitment is to God as well as to the spouse, and should be entered into only between a man and a woman who share a common faith. Mutual love, honor, respect, and responsibility are the fabric of this relationship, which is to reflect the love, sanctity, closeness, and permanence of the relationship between Christ and His church. Regarding divorce, Jesus taught that the person who divorces a spouse, except for fornication, and marries another commits adultery. Although some family relationships may fall short of the ideal, a man and a woman who fully commit themselves to each other in Christ through marriage achieve loving unity through the guidance of the Spirit and the nurture of the church. God blesses the family and intends that its members shall assist each other toward complete maturity. Increasing family closeness is one of the earmarks of the final gospel message. Parents are to bring up their children to love and obey the Lord. By their example and their words they are to teach them that Christ is a loving, tender, and caring guide who wants them to become members of His body, the family of God, which embraces both single and married persons. (Gen. 2:18-25; Ex. 20:12; Deut. 6:5-9; Prov. 22:6; Mal. 4:5, 6; Matt. 5:31, 32; 19:3-9, 12; Mark 10:11, 12; John 2:1-11; 1 Cor. 7:7, 10, 11; 2 Cor. 6:14; Eph. 5:21-33; 6:1-4.)

24 Christ’s Ministry in the Heavenly Sanctuary: There is a sanctuary in heaven, the true tabernacle that the Lord set up and not humans. In it Christ ministers on our behalf, making available to believers the benefits of His atoning sacrifice offered once for all on the cross. At His ascension He was inaugurated as our great High Priest and began His intercessory ministry, which was typified by the work of the high priest in the holy place of the earthly sanctuary. In 1844, at the end of the prophetic period of 2300 days, He entered the second and last phase of His atoning ministry, which was typified by the work of the high priest in the most holy place of the earthly sanctuary. It is a work of investigative judgment, which is part of the ultimate disposition of all sin, typified by the cleansing of the ancient Hebrew sanctuary on the Day of Atonement. In that typical service the sanctuary was cleansed with the blood of animal sacrifices, but the heavenly things are purified with the perfect sacrifice of the blood of Jesus. The investigative judgment reveals to heavenly intelligences who among the dead are asleep in Christ and therefore, in Him, are deemed worthy to have part in the first resurrection. It also makes manifest who among the living are abiding in Christ, keeping the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus, and in Him, therefore, are ready for translation into His everlasting kingdom. This judgment vindicates the justice of God in saving those who believe in Jesus. It declares that those who have remained loyal to God shall receive the kingdom. The completion of this ministry of Christ will mark the close of human probation before the Second Advent. (Lev. 16; Num. 14:34; Eze. 4:6; Dan. 7:9-27; 8:13, 14; 9:24-27; Heb. 1:3; 2:16, 17; 4:14-16; 8:1-5; 9:11-28; 10:19-22; Rev. 8:3-5; 11:19; 14:6, 7; 20:12; 22:11, 12.)

25 The Second Coming of Christ: The second coming of Christ is the blessed hope of the church, the grand climax of the gospel. The Saviour’s coming will be literal, personal, visible, and worldwide. When He returns, the righteous dead will be resurrected and, together with the righteous living, will be glorified and taken to heaven, but the unrighteous will die. The almost complete fulfillment of most lines of prophecy, together with the present condition of the world, indicates that Christ’s coming is near. The time of that event has not been revealed, and we are therefore exhorted to be ready at all times. (Matt. 24; Mark 13; Luke 21; John 14:1-3; Acts 1:9-11; 1 Cor. 15:51-54; 1 Thess. 4:13-18; 5:1-6; 2 Thess. 1:7-10; 2:8; 2 Tim. 3:1-5; Titus 2:13; Heb. 9:28; Rev. 1:7; 14:14-20; 19:11-21.)

26 Death and Resurrection: The wages of sin is death. But God, who alone is immortal, will grant eternal life to His redeemed. Until that day death is an unconscious state for all people. When Christ, who is our life, appears, the resurrected righteous and the living righteous will be glorified and caught up to meet their Lord. The second resurrection, the resurrection of the unrighteous, will take place a thousand years later. (Job 19:25-27; Ps. 146:3, 4; Eccl. 9:5, 6; Dan. 12, 13; Isa. 4:5; John 5:28, 29; 11:11-14; Rom. 6:23; 1 Cor. 15:51-54; Col. 3:4; 1 Thess. 4:13-17; 1 Tim. 6:15, 16; Rev. 20:1-10.)

27 The Millennium and the End of Sin: The millennium is the thousand-year reign of Christ with His saints in heaven between the first and second resurrections. During this time the wicked dead will be judged; the earth will be utterly desolate, without living human inhabitants, but occupied by Satan and his angels. At its close Christ with His saints and the Holy City will descend from heaven to earth. The unrighteous dead will then be resurrected, and with Satan and his angels will surround the city, but fire from God will consume them and cleanse the earth. The universe will thus be freed of sin and sinners forever. (Jer. 4:23-26; Eze. 28:18, 19; Mat. 4:1; 1 Cor. 6:2, 3; Rev. 20:2; 21:1-5.)

28 The New Earth: On the new earth, in which righteousness dwells, God will provide an eternal home for the redeemed and a perfect environment for everlasting life, love, joy, and learning in His presence. For here God Himself will dwell with His people, and suffering and death will have passed away. The great controversy will be ended, and sin will be no more. All things, animate and inanimate, will declare that God is love; and He shall reign forever. Amen. (Isa. 35; 65:17-25; Matt. 5:5; 2 Peter 3:13; Rev. 11:15; 21:1-7, 22:1-5.)

Seventh-day Adventists accept the Bible as their only creed and hold certain fundamental beliefs to be the teaching of the Holy Scriptures. These beliefs, as set forth here, constitute the church’s understanding and expression of the teaching of Scripture. Revision of these statements may be expected at a General Conference session when the church is led by the Holy Spirit to a fuller understanding of Bible truth or finds better language to express the teachings of God’s Holy Word.
The Bible is one continued story of the history of God's love for mankind. The various names we give it are an indication of that fact: The Plan of Salvation, The Great Controversy Between Christ and Satan, Eden Lost to Eden Regained, to name a few. Like any well-written story, the Bible contains both major and minor events. Certain Bible stories tell of major turning points in human history. These are events that change life forever. Six of these stories have been pictured for you as pillars to make a framework on which to hang all the events of the Bible: Creation, the Flood, the Exodus (from Egypt), the Captivity (in Babylon), Jesus' first coming, and Jesus' second coming.

These Bible stories are well known. Juniors are more likely to know about the Exodus from Egypt, for instance, than they are to know about Caleb and Joshua. When something already known is linked to new information, meaningful learning is more likely to occur. By helping students bring to mind what they already know about a topic, then teaching them something new about it, they can mentally organize the new information. Asking them questions about their knowledge of the larger context, as well as the story at hand, will reveal where they need help with their learning gaps. Mental linkages formed between their prior knowledge and the new ideas result in more long lasting, usable, and accurate memory of the information learned.

People of any age can have trouble understanding something until they see how it fits into a larger context. Just as fractions make no sense to a child who hasn't learned much mathematics, doctrines mean little before grasping the beauty of the plan of salvation. Stories by themselves often have limited meaning until they are seen within the setting of a broader narrative. The human mind understands much better when learning is positioned in a larger context.

The weekly Bible story is positioned near a picture to indicate where it fits in the narrative of the whole Bible story. Even adults who have read the Bible for years, without thinking of the overall framework, will express amazement that everything fits together when they are introduced to the Bible as one story.

Children begin by learning individual Bible stories without the context. The value of meaningful learning comes as they continue to grow in their understanding, fitting appropriately the little bits and pieces of Bible information into the broader context. Those who have repeatedly heard or read the 10-volume set of The Bible Story, or listened to The Bible in Living Sound, or have had an abundance of other religious education, may gain an understanding of the Bible framework at a surprisingly early age. You may be fortunate to have one or more of these children in your class. However, the majority of your group will most likely not have had these experiences. By deliberately drawing their attention toward the big picture, helping them make the connections between the individual Bible stories and the whole Bible narrative, you will be greatly advancing their understanding of God's plan and will for their lives.

A major reason that clear understanding of Bible sequence doesn't take place from merely reading is that the Bible is not written straight through in chronological order. Instead, the Bible is a library of sets of books. In most cases, an individual set is written sequentially, but across the sets there are some major differences. An example: Who lived earlier, Daniel or Jonah? If you based your answer on where their books appear in the Old Testament, you would think Daniel lived earlier. However, if you based your answer on what you know about Bible history and the details of Jonah's story, you would think about the fact that Jonah was sent to the city of Nineveh, which was the capital of the Assyrian Empire. Assyria did not show up in the image King Nebuchadnezzar saw in his dream (Daniel 2). By the time of Daniel, the Babylonian Empire controlled that part of the world. Therefore, Jonah had to have lived earlier than Daniel.

Here is a brief review of the sets of books found in the library we call the Bible:

Set No. 1: The Books of Moses
The first five books are basically all in chronological order. They begin with Creation, share the Flood story, then tell of God choosing Abraham to begin... the family line of the Messiah to come. Stories of Isaac, Jacob, Joseph, and Moses draw our minds down through the years until God’s mighty power rescued them from slavery in Egypt and led them on their way to the Promised Land. At Mount Sinai God prepared them to be a well-organized nation, and gave them the sanctuary service as a visual aid for understanding and remembering His promise of a Redeemer to come.

Set No. 2: The Books of History
From Joshua to Esther we find stories of God’s leading in the history of the Children of Israel. Mostly these books are in chronological order, but First and Second Kings cover much of the same history as First and Second Chronicles. Esther was somewhat before Ezra and Nehemiah because Xerxes was the Persian king who chose her as queen. It was Xerxes’s son, Artaxerxes, who sent Ezra and then Nehemiah back to Jerusalem. Esther comes in Bible order after their books because the Jews traditionally placed her book as the first of the set of poetry books.

Set No. 3: The Books of Poetry
Job through Song of Solomon are in chronological order by their authors: Moses, David (and some other song writers), and Solomon.

Set No. 4: The Major Prophets
The books of Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, and Daniel surround the time of the Captivity and are in chronological order according to when they began their prophetic work. Jeremiah wrote the book of Lamentations as a lament for the destruction of Jerusalem. After the Babylonian Captivity, God’s people never again had their own king. They were always ruled by foreign powers. So Esther, Ezra, and Nehemiah relate the history of God’s people after these major prophets.

Set No. 5: The Minor Prophets
The books of Hosea through Malachi comprise the remainder of the Old Testament. All but two of these books state what kings were in power when they were written. That makes it quite easy to figure out when these prophets worked. Some of them served at the time of the kings of Judah and Israel; others served after the Captivity during the time of the kings of Persia. Thus, this set stretches over many years.

The Old Testament covers the first four major stories in the Bible picture time line. The last two major stories are in the New Testament:

Set No. 6: The Four Gospels
Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John wrote stories of Jesus’ life on this earth. Each author told the story of Jesus’ first coming from a different perspective.

Set No. 7: The History of the Early Christian Church
The book of Acts contains stories of the apostles after Jesus returned to heaven and they began preaching in Jerusalem and finally throughout the world.

Set No. 8: Letters to People and Churches
Romans to Jude are letters that apostles wrote to instruct and encourage either an individual (such as Timothy) or particular groups of people (such as Philippians). These letters continue to instruct and encourage everyone who studies them today.

Set No. 9: The Revelation of Jesus Christ
The final book of the Bible, written when the apostle John was a very old man, contains the prophecies of events to take place down to the second coming of Jesus and beyond.

Each of the six “pillars” in the Bible picture time line is a redemption story that is surrounded by prophetic guidance. Each one enlarges the view of God’s marvelous care and planning for His earthly children. Gaining a coherent understanding of the entire narrative is of infinite value for sealing personal bonds with the King of the universe.
Dear Parents,

We are delighted to have your child in the junior Sabbath School class this quarter. We look forward to an exciting time together as we delve into God's Word through the Sabbath School lessons. Our goal is to provide all students with opportunities to get to know Jesus as their personal Savior and Friend.

Please encourage your child to study the Bible lesson and complete the daily activities in preparation for Sabbath School each week. Your help and support can stimulate good Bible study habits and contribute to your child's spiritual growth. You may also want to remind your child to listen each week to the podcast of the lesson available online at www.juniorpowerpoints.org/podcast.php?channel=1. We encourage you to check out the Parents’ Pages (found in the back of the student Bible study guide) for your use in family worship.

A mission offering is taken up each week in Sabbath School. We want to help students understand the importance of giving to the Lord. This quarter the mission offering will be directed to the __________________________ division (Check the back of the adult Bible Study Guide or visit www.AdventistMission.org for a list of the mission projects for this quarter.). Please remind and encourage your child to contribute to the mission offerings. Cultivating this habit in Sabbath School prepares students for the systematic giving of tithes and offerings.

Finally, the Sabbath School team wants you to know that our goal is to keep the lines of communication open with you. Please don’t hesitate to let us know if you have any questions or concerns. We will be happy to assist you and accommodate your child to the best of our ability.

May God richly bless your family!

Sincerely,
