 7. The boy listened, amazed at how ____ it was to understand what Jesus was teaching.
 10. Looking around him, he saw people listening carefully. Some were smiling. Others nodded their heads in agreement. But some were ____.
 11. After the service the boy & his father left the synagogue & began to ____ home. Each was thinking about how good it had been to be at the place of worship today, a place where evil could not conquer goodness.
 12. FTWTF - Power Point
1. [Tuesday's lesson] Jesus used all His abilities to make worship _____. Discuss with an adult what abilities you have that you could use to take part in worship at your church.
 2. [Friday's lesson] Psalm 98:4-9 is very similar to Psalm 100. It has been made into a contemporary Christian praise song. If you know that song, "____ to the Lord" (Praise Time, No. 69), sing it to open the Sabbath. If not, sing another song of praise.
 4. "Capernaum has so many people passing through it," his father observed. "I think Jesus wants to reach as many people as possible with His _____. This is a good place to do that."
 5. "Everyone has come to hear Jesus," his father answered. "After He healed the ____ son, word spread quickly about His teachings."
 8. The young man looked at Jesus. He was holding His hands out to the man. There seemed to be sorrow & ____ on His face at the same time. "Leave this man alone!" Jesus commanded. And after one last struggle the demon obeyed.
 9. Holding up His ____ for silence, Jesus continued with the worship service. This time everyone was a part of the service.

Power Point

When we take an active part in worship, we are responding to God's love.
