3. [Sunday's lesson] Ask God to help you keep to a ____ for your personal devotions this week.
4. "The water I would give you would satisfy you, & you would never be thirsty again. In fact, it would be like a ____ gurgling all the time inside you. You'd never go dry."
5. "You surely told the truth there," He calmly replied. She lowered her pitcher again & stared at Him in shock. "In fact," He continued, "you have had ____ husbands, & the man you live with now isn't really your husband."
6. After a little while a woman came down the path to the well. She had her own ____, her own rope. She let the ____ down, down, down, & Jesus could hear it splash as it reached the water.
7. At the opening of the valley was Jacob's _____. Jesus gladly sat there to rest while the disciples went into the Samaritan town to get some food.

9. "Are you more important or more powerful than ____, the one who gave us this well & its water?" she asked. Jesus didn't answer her question directly.
10. Leaving her water pitcher by the well, she hurried toward the ____ to call her neighbors to come & hear what she had heard. Jesus hadn't had a drink of water yet. The woman hadn't even remembered to take her pitcher with her, but both she & Jesus felt refreshed.
11. "Why are you asking me for a ____, since you are a Jew?" she blurted out bluntly.
12. "Sir, I think you must be a ____,," she said, really meaning it. But she also wanted to change the subject. She really didn't want to deal with her problems yet.
13. FTWTF - Power Point

Power Point

No matter where we are, we can worship God in spirit in response to His love.
