Lesson 12 Death by Deception

FTWTF means:
Find
The Word
That Fits

Power Point
We treat others with respect by being honest and not taking advantage of them.

Power Text
“The Lord detests lying lips, but he delights in men who are truthful”
Proverbs 12:22 NIV

Across

1. [Friday’s lesson] Read Isaiah 33:15,16.
Create In your Bible study journal, create an _____ for the type of person described in these verses.

5. FTWTF - Power Text
9. Once again a message flew back to King David with a swift _____. It contained a full account of the battle.

10. But Uriah didn’t go home. He slept with the servants and palace ___. When news of this got back to David, he asked, "Why didn’t you go home and sleep in your own bed?"

12. Before long, Bathsheba sent a message to David. She was _____. David was in trouble. He knew he had done wrong.

13. The message said, "Put Uriah where the fighting is the heaviest, then withdraw his back-ups and let him be killed." The more David tried to ____ up his sin and fix things himself, the worse it got.

Down

2. FTWTF - Title
Discuss with an adult your feelings about "____" on someone. How is this different from or the same as what Nathan did about David’s sin?

4. Uriah, the loyal soldier, responded, "I couldn’t go and enjoy the comfort of my own home while Joab and all the other soldiers are ____ in the field."

6. FTWTF - Power Point
7. David tried again to get Uriah to go home. "Stay in the city one more day. Surely you must be tired," he insisted. "Have supper with me." During the meal Uriah got ___. But he didn’t go home the second night, either. David’s deceitful plan had not worked.

8. While David forgot God and trusted his own might and power, his adultery had been covered by deception, and his deception had been followed by murder. He was a different man from what he had been out in the wilderness, chased by Saul, when he had _____ completely on God for everything.

11. The messenger gave his message—all of it. David sent a message back, "The ____ kills one as well as another. Press the attack and destroy the city."

© 2008 General Conference Sabbath School Department