Power Text - John 15: 12,13 NIV

My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that he lay down his life for his friends.

3. "There is no greater way to show love for a friend than to give your life for him. You say that you're my friends. You need to demonstrate that _____ by doing what I ask you to do."
4. Actually, this new law of love seemed almost _____ to live by than all the rules & regulations of the Pharisees. It certainly didn't come naturally.
7. Jesus started talking again. "You didn't choose to be my friends, but I have been your friend even before you knew who I was. I called you & asked you to go out & gather much fruit, the kind of fruit that will remain loyal to me. Whatever you ask the Father to give you to help carry out His _____, He'll give it to you."
8. [Friday's lesson] Read John 15:16, 17. What does it mean to bear _____?
9. [Tuesday's lesson] Read John 15:12, 13. Create a friendship symbol, a small simple drawing that reminds you of friendship.
10. Come to think of it, we all are a little nicer to one another now that we have been _____ years with Jesus.

5. Jesus & the 11 disciples were walking on the _____ road toward the Kidron Valley. John, walking closest to Jesus, knew they must be headed for the Garden of Gethsemane.
6. They continued through the Kidron Valley in _____ for a while. Jesus may have thought, I hope they'll finally understand about love when I give My life for them.
7. "I have never treated you like servants & I never will. Servants aren't told everything their _____ are planning to do. But you're my friends. Ever since I've known you, I've told you everything my Father has told me to tell you."
