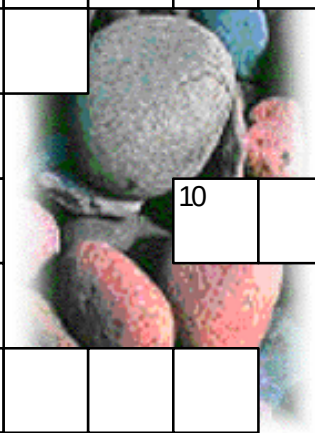
Lesson 10 Midnight Friend in Galilee

Year A – 2nd Quarter

Power Text

A friend loves at all times, & a brother is born for adversity. Proverbs 17:17, NIV



Can't find an answer? Check your Guide or quarterly!

FTWTF means: Find The Word That Fits

Across

1. "I wouldn't even have to think twice about it," said Father. "As with you, if you asked me for bread, I wouldn't give you a ____."
4. [Friday's lesson] Make special friendship ____ for three friends who have helped you. Write the power text on them. Mail them to your friends or invite the friends to dinner & give the ____ to them then.
6. [Monday's lesson] Find & read the power text in Proverbs 17:17. Find the word "adversity" in a ____.
8. "Well, He said that God wants us to ask Him for things that we need," the boy said. "Do you think that means He'd give me ____ I want?"
10. "You woke me up to borrow three loaves of ____? It's the middle of the night!" Father exclaimed.
11. The son could see the tiny flicker of lamplight as his father stepped across the other family members' sleeping mats & made his way to the door. "Who's there?" Father asked groggily.
12. "I'm not," his father said with a chuckle. "He & I have known each other since we were babies. Part of being a friend is being available when it's ____ & even when it's not. He's my friend, & he knew that he could come & wake me up," even when it's not. He's my friend, & he knew that he could come & wake me up," "And you could go to him sometime if you really needed help," the son interjected.

Down

1. FTWTF - PowerPoint
2. "I believe that is how it is with God," his father answered. "There is a big difference between needs & ____. If He gave us everything we wanted, it might not be best for us."
3. Thud! Thud! Thud! There it was again! He wondered. It's the middle of the night! Who could be at the ____? Thud! Thud! Thud!
5. "Here's the bread," the father said just as his son came up. "Now let a weary man get back to his warm bed." "Thank you, my friend," the midnight visitor said as he took the bread. "I knew I could ____ on you. Good night."
7. FTWTF - Power Text
9. FTWTF - Title

Power Point

Because God loves us at all times, we are always willing to reflect His love to others.

© 2008 General Conference Sabbath School Department