Power Point

God give us wisdom so we can serve others.

Power Text

Choose my instruction instead of silver, knowledge rather than choice gold, for wisdom is more precious than rubies, & nothing you desire can compare with her.
Proverbs 8:10,11 NIV

Across

1. "Wiser. And he's talented in other ways, too," said the special events chief. "He's written _____,000 proverbs and songs, and he knows everything about plants and animals. There's nothing he doesn't understand."
4. "That's right. He knew that God had been _____ to his father, David, even though he made mistakes. Solomon felt he needed guidance to be a good king. So he asked for wisdom to rule the people," replied the chief.
5. You could have asked for a lot of other things, but you didn't. So I am going to give you the things you didn't ask for-wealth and _____. If you obey me as your father did, I will give you a long life, too."
7. Solomon climbed the steps to his throne and seated himself. Two attendants arranged his red and golden robes. Another handed him his scepter. At last he was ready to receive his guests
