Across

3. Then one by one the other believers dropped coins or pledged goods to be given to the church family in Jerusalem. When the _____ was full, another believer handed it to Barnabas.
5. [Sunday's lesson] Pray for your _____ & the leaders in your church.
6. "I think Barnabas should go," someone else said. "He's proved his ability to encourage new believers." "Yes, Barnabas is a good choice," everyone agreed. "Are you willing to accept this _____, Barnabas?" the deacon asked, turning to him.

11. "Have you heard what they've been calling us?" Paul said to _____ one day.
12. Paul immediately agreed to work with Barnabas. Back in Antioch, they began teaching the _____ about Jesus. Soon they were being called by a new name: Christians.

Down

1. FTWTF - Power Point
2. Antioch is a beautiful place on the outside, but there's a lot of corruption there, too. The people worship the _____ Daphne. Her worship is filled with immoral practices."
4. Barnabas chuckled. "Yes. Christians. They think calling us 'these Christ folk' insults us or is a big joke. They have no idea what a great _____ it is to be named after our Lord!"
7. [Wednesday's lesson] Read Acts 11:25, 26. Tell about a time when you were teased about something or called a name & it _____ out to be a good thing.
8. Friends, we received word today from those who left here because of persecution. Their teaching is being well received by the people in Antioch. I think we have the beginnings of another _____!
9. "It's the third-largest city within the Roman Empire," Barnabas said. "People come from all over the world to _____ & do business there.
