Power Text

"For God so loved the world that he gave his one & only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life"

John 3:16, NIV

"Through Jesus, therefore, let us continually offer to God a sacrifice of praise—the fruit of lips that confess his name"

Hebrews 13:15, NIV

Across

- FTWTF - Power Text
- [Monday's lesson] Read John 3:16, 17. Practice saying these verses ____ times a day.
- "Thank you, Cinda," said Mrs. Barnabas, their ____ teacher. "Sunil, Jonathan, did you have a question?"
- Sunil's hand shot up. "I know! Even if we don't have a lot of ____ & other things, we can still give ourselves to Jesus." "And even if we do have a lot to give to Jesus, we still need to give ourselves," agreed Cinda, nodding.
- "Sunil, could you read this for me?" said Mrs. B, handing him a ____ from a stack she held in her hand.
- FTWTF - Power Point
- "What can I give Him, as poor as I am? If I were a shepherd, I'd give Him a _____. If I were a Wise Man, I'd do my part.

Down

- "Sunil & Cinda," said Mrs. B, her ____ shining. "You have just described grace."
- "I guess it's like eating," grinned Jonathan. "You've got to do it every day to stay ____." "Right, Jonathan. Giving yourself to Jesus isn't just a onetime occurrence. It's something that has to happen daily."
- "The 'Him' is Jesus," explained Cinda. "The ____ in the poem represents the ones who visited Jesus on the night He was born. The Wise Men are the Magi."
- FTWTF - Title
- [Thursday's lesson] Read Romans 12: 1, 2. Turn the plate around with the ____ at the top &, using the marks you have already made, add other marks to make a happy face.
- "The shepherds are like the person who wrote the poem. They were so poor they couldn't even afford to give away a little ____ -- forget the lamb."
