

Power Text Lesson 01 Altars, Altars, Everywhere

“Whoever serves me must follow me; & where I am, my servant also will be. My father will honor the one who serves me”
John 12:26, NIV

Power Point

We can serve God wherever He leads us.

Across

Down

- When Lot asked what their new home would be like, no one knew the answer. The most direct way to Canaan would have been to go across the Arabian _____, but that was impossible. No one would have survived that.
- FTWTF - Title
- Abram said. "If we follow His leading, our people will become a great nation. God said this, & I believe Him." Lot was _____. Which uncle should he follow?
- Whenever Abram left one of his encampments, the altar remained as a _____ to anyone who happened by.
- It was a beautiful, fertile area, known for its grainfields & _____. To show his thanks for God's leading, Abram built an altar.
- Throughout this great migration to Canaan, however, Abram never claimed to be a great leader. Wherever he went, he always said God was the leader of His people. When they reached a place called Shechem, they camped in a broad, _____ valley.
- [Sunday's lesson] Use an encyclopedia, concordance, or Bible _____ to find out as much as possible about altars. Write what you find in your Bible study journal.
- Instead they set out on an indirect route up the great Euphrates _____. Along the way, after traveling 600 miles, they settled in a city called Haran.
- FTWTF - Power Point
- FTWTF - Power Text
- [Tuesday's lesson] Read Genesis 12: 1-3. How did Abram know that this _____ came from God? Think about a time when you or someone you know felt God was sending a message that led you to do some special service for Him.
- But Canaan sounded so distant, so different from what the family was used to. Instead of living in solid, comfortable homes, with _____ walls & a roof, they might be spending the rest of their lives in flimsy tents.
- It was easy to see that the Canaanites had actually offered human sacrifices on these _____. Into this kind of surroundings he boldly placed his own _____ for the worship of the one true God.