- But by the time his _____ legs got him down, the hogs had snuffled up everything.
- He had once been the _____ of the town. His lavish parties were famous. Expensive too. Had he really run through his entire inheritance? Well, there would be no more where that came from.
- [Sunday's lesson] Star the paragraph in the story that describes the prodigal's _____.
- [Friday's lesson] At worship, tell your family the _____ of the prodigal family. Ask them to tell how the story ends.
- [Monday's lesson] " Read Luke 15:11-19." "Prodigal" means extravagant or _____ to the point of being wasteful. Who was the obvious prodigal in this story? Verse 12 is about wasting family ties; what is wasted in verse 13?
- As the young man _____ the muck from the pig pen, he tried to forget the awful stench by remembering better times.
- "OK, boy! I do have work. You start at the bottom & work up. Ha-ha-ha. See down there; it's the pig pen! _____ it out. Take this shovel. And when you are done, stay down there. You can shake the pods from the trees & feed the hogs with them. Take it or leave it."
- And before he realized it, he was _____, stumbling toward home. And all the way he rehearsed his confession. Father, I have sinned against God & against you.
- With a pang of conscience that nearly doubled him over with pain, the young man remembered the day his dad had handed over the _____.
- The old man had aged overnight, it seemed.
- By rocking back & forth he hoped to shake down more than enough _____ for the animals & some extra for himself.
