Power Text

"The Lord does not look at the things man looks at. Man looks at the outward appearance, but the Lord looks at the heart"
1 Samuel 16:7, NIV

Across

2. "Not this one, either," Samuel said. Jesse called Shammah, the third oldest. "No," said Samuel. After the last of the seven passed in front of the ____, he shook his head again.
5. "What about the sheep?" asked David, sitting up straight. He peered at his tall, muscular brother. Eliab's handsome face was twisted into a ____.
9. As Eliab passed before Samuel, Samuel heard the Lord's voice. "Don't look at his height or his handsome face. I have rejected him. I don't look at the things you look at. You look outside, at his face & his body. I look inside, at his ____."
10. As David stood watching the sheep ____ at a brook, a stranger ran down the hill. "The prophet Samuel wants to see you," the messenger announced.

3. When the prophet touched his head with the oil, David felt a warmth course through his body from the top of his head to the tips of his fingers & ____. It was a sensation unlike anything he had ever felt. He felt more alive, strong, & at peace than on the sunniest day out on the hills of Bethlehem.
4. [Tuesday's lesson] Read 1 Samuel 16:2-5. Thank God that we don't need to be ____ of Him.
6. FTWTF - Title
7. Jesse, followed by his sons in order from oldest to youngest, filed into the place of sacrifice. When Samuel saw how the oldest carried himself, his eyes lit up. He strongly resembled ____ Saul.
8. [Friday's lesson] ____ a song based on Micah 6:8 to begin family worship. Read 1 Samuel 16:7. Pray Thank God for looking at the real you.
12. David stroked the ____ on his lap, picked up his harp, & breathed deeply. It was good to be back with the sheep. He kept replaying yesterday's events, trying to make sense of them.
