Power Text - Acts 1:8 NIV

"You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; & you will be my witnesses... to the ends of the earth"

Across

- The old man who strode ahead so firmly was the famous prophet Elijah. Everybody, even those who did not worship the God of Israel, recognized Elijah-the fierce figure in a ____ - ____ cloak & thick leather belt. And they would then also recognize the younger man with him.
- [Wednesday's lesson] Read 2 Kings 2:1-15 again. Think Have you ever been handed down a special family ____? If not, ask the adults in your family if they have. How did you or they feel when you were given that gift?
- Elisha followed Elijah across the river, hesitating for only a moment to drag the toe of his ____ in the dust. Dust!

- Elisha knew already. He wanted to be treated as elder sons were treated. He wanted a ____ portion. Not a ____ portion of riches. Elijah had no riches. But Elijah had God's Spirit upon him. Elisha knew that if he could receive a ____ portion of this Spirit, he would truly be Elijah's successor.
- So they walked on & talked as old friends do. Elisha tucked away every word Elijah said to him. Suddenly a wild ____ began to blow.
- [Thursday's lesson] Read Acts 2:2-11. Ask an adult to tell you about a time God's Spirit gave them _____. Tell that adult about a time God's Spirit gave you _____, if you can think of one.

Down

- The men set out again. The sun was higher & hotter now. They stepped off the road to make way for a long caravan of merchants. Tall ____ stepping haughtily. Drivers joking with each other.

- The very air glowed. And a ____ of fire pulled by horses of fire whooshed between them. It snatched up Elijah, but his cloak fell from him back to the ground.
- Elijah took Elisha aside. "The Lord has told me to go to the Jordan _____," he said, "but you might as well stay here."
- When they arrived in Bethel, some of the students from the ____ of the prophets surrounded Elisha.
