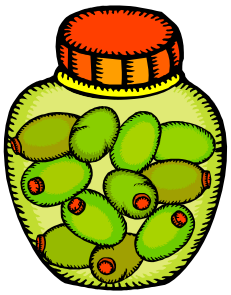
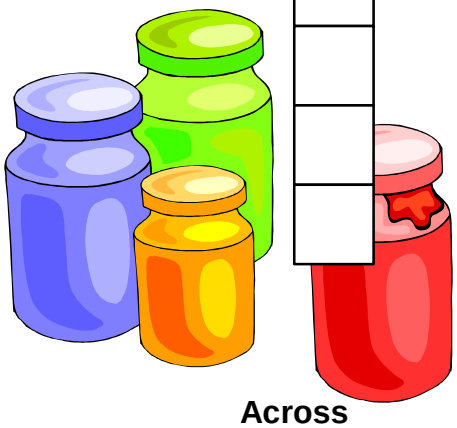
Lesson 12 Oil Unlimited

Year B – 2nd Quarter

Power Point

The supply of God's grace never ends.





FTWTF means: Find The Word That Fits

Can't find an answer? Check your Guide or quarterly!

Power Text

"And my God will meet all your needs according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus" Philippians 4:19, NIV

Across

2. FTWTF - Power Point
6. The widow went home rejoicing. And her two sons ____ soundly that night in their own beds, in their own home. Because of God's grace.
7. The three of them ____ together with joy and utter amazement at what was happening.
9. He pulled the heavy door that opened onto the street, and there he saw the widow of a dear friend. Her eyes were red-rimmed, and her face was stained with ____. "Come in! Come in!" he said kindly, stepping to one side. "What's the matter?"
12. [Thursday's lesson] Read "Oil Unlimited" again. ____ the power text in your own words. Talk with an adult about all the blessing that God has given us that we didn't earn or maybe don't deserve.
13. The widow looked around. She walked over and closed the front ____. She picked up her own pot of oil, and her eyes shone.

Down

1. The widow wiped her face and took a deep, ragged breath. "I don't have anything at all except a pot of ____ oil," she whispered.
3. FTWTF - Title
4. [Tuesday's lesson] Read Philippians 4:19. Find a discarded box or container. Decorate it and label it "God Box." What need do you have that you wish God would meet? Write that need on a small piece of ____.
5. Finally a smile covered his face. "Go home," he said, "and borrow ____ from your friends and neighbors. Borrow lots of ____!"
8. FTWTF - Power Text
10. ____ hastily ran his fingers through his hair to comb it. He wondered who would be knocking so early in the morning.
11. She began to pour the oil into a third pot. It was a miracle! The boys carefully moved the jars and ____ out of the way as they were filled. They brought empty ones and put them on the table.

© 2009 General Conference Sabbath School Department