- Daniel could even see some of the trees from the world-famous "___ gardens" that King Nebuchadnezzar had built for his wife.
- [Tuesday's lesson] Review the story of Daniel's prayer for the sins of others in Daniel 9:1-19. Daniel's prayer begins with a reference to the "great and awesome" (NIV) God. How has God been awesome in your life? List Start a list of the ways God has ___ you. You might want to draw or find a picture of each blessing.
- He gazed out at the quiet city. Babylon was such a beautiful place. ___ ___ stirred in the early morning breezes.
- [Sunday's lesson] Read the power text. On a large piece of paper, draw a ___ like the one you think Daniel knelt beside every day. Write the power text in the ___ frame and put the paper where you can see and review it daily.
- He sprinkled ashes on his head and wiped some more of them on the sackcloth. He would dedicate this day to ___. He would talk to God about how he felt. And today he would fast. No food would pass his lips. Nothing would distract him from his prayers. He knelt again in front of the window.
- And Daniel went on praying. He confessed his own sins and the sins of his people Israel. He pleaded with the Lord to restore His holy ___.
- Suddenly Daniel knew without a doubt that the Lord had heard him. The ___ Gabriel, whom he had seen before in a vision, was there with him. Gabriel spoke gently, "The moment you began praying, a command was given. I am here to tell you what it was, for God loves you very much" (Daniel 9:23, NLT).
