Power Text

"Each man should give what he has decided in his heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver."

2 Corinthians 9:7, NIV

Across

4. [Monday's lesson] Read 2 Kings 12:1-8. Look for a small can, cup, or ____ that you can keep in your room as a special container-like the chest in the story of King Joash-to place your tithe & offerings in before you take them to church. Decorate your special container to make it look as nice as you can.
5. Plaster has fallen from the wall behind the trunk. It is a good place to demonstrate the needs. A priest bends over the trunk to inspect it with a nod. He runs his hand across a hole big enough for shekels of silver & ____ to be put into it.
8. At the end of every day, the Levites bring the trunk into the Temple to empty it & count the money under the supervision of the king's secretary. The next ____, it is hauled back to its spot at the entrance.
9. The marble gleams milk white again, with no green streaks. The brand-new golden ____ reflect the candlelight in a sacred glow. The Temple is reopened, & Temple services resume.
12. When the Temple is beautiful once more, there is still money enough to replace the silver & gold ____ & other items that Joash's wicked grandmother stole for her worship of Baal.
13. Plaster has fallen from the wall behind the trunk. It is a good place to demonstrate the needs. A priest bends over the trunk to inspect it with a nod. He runs his hand across a hole big enough for shekels of ____ & jewelry to be put into it.

Down

1. A large ____ trunk is brought to the entrance of the formerly majestic, marble Temple, & placed right behind a particularly rundown spot.
