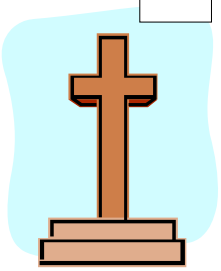
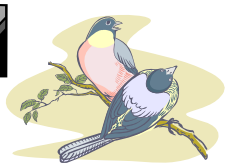
Power Text

And Jesus grew in wisdom & stature, & in favor with God & men. Luke 2:52

For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve. Mark 10:45





Across

6. He loved to work the rough logs into smooth ____, carefully fitting the pieces together into a finished product. He would look with satisfaction on these simple wooden things the way He looked with satisfaction upon the gigantic world after He had created it.
8. FTWTF - Power Text
9. He was always on the watch for some way to make people feel better. Can you imagine a person like that? Because of this, everything & everyone seemed to light up wherever He went. Having Him around even cheered up the ____ in the trees & the donkeys in the barn.
10. Sometimes we think of work as a hard, ____ thing to do. But Jesus approached His work with a positive attitude.
12. FTWTF - Power Point
13. Often Mary looked with wonder at her Son. He never frowned when He didn't get His way. His face was always full of goodness-even when He was treated ____ by other children.

Down

1. "Good work, son!" Joseph's voice could be heard as they worked together in the ____ shop. Jesus' work was always well done.
2. [Monday's lesson] Read Luke 2:51, 52. Think about the ways that Jesus blessed those people & ____ around Him as a young man.
3. [Thursday's lesson] Read Matthew 5:23, 24 & 18:21, 22. In your Bible study ____, write about how a forgiving spirit can be a blessing to others.
4. FTWTF - Title
5. The reason we go to school is to prepare to do something-such as becoming a doctor or a teacher. In His school Jesus was preparing as well, to become the Saviour of the world, to give His life on the ____.
7. Then it was clean up time. Can you imagine a young person, working hard, then cleaning up without being told? Not only did He do that, but He sang as He worked, in a clear, strong voice. The words of the psalms of ____ would fill the air, dancing with joy & melody. Any evil angel flying about would quickly leave the sound of that music of praise to God.
11. But Jesus did have other teachers besides His mother & the Word of God. He spent time learning from the many different types of trees, from the fields of ____ that produced food, & even from the brooks & lake.
