- [Wednesday's lesson] Consider the ways in which people in your surroundings ____ Jesus' birth. Think of three ways you can personally help others this week to focus on the true meaning of the holidays.
- They were terrified as an angel suddenly appeared before them and spoke: "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is Christ the Lord. This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in ____ and lying in a manger" (Luke 2:10-12, NIV).

- But suddenly their talk was interrupted as the night ____ began to glow around them-a glow so bright that the entire field seemed to come alive with a strange and beautiful light.
- It is _____. All is quiet. A gentle breeze blows across the fields where sheep are grazing. Stars shine brightly in the sky.
- It was the most beautiful music they had ever heard. "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men," the voices sang (Luke 2:14). A throng of angels had come to share in telling the good news of Jesus' _____.
- [Tuesday's lesson] Read Luke 2:21-40. From old magazines and newspapers, clip pictures of babies and make a collage that expresses for you what it meant for Jesus to come to this earth as an infant. Place the collage somewhere in your room to serve as a reminder of the central meaning of the ____ season.

- Then, when the time came (about 40 days after His birth), Mary and Joseph took Jesus to the Temple in Jerusalem for dedication and to offer a sacrifice. There, the priest took the child and laid Him on the _____. Then he recorded the name "Jesus" in the book where the names of every firstborn son were written.
- When the ____ arrived at Bethlehem, they soon found Mary, Joseph, and Jesus, just as the angel had described them. What a sight! There in an animal shelter, in a feeding trough stuffed with hay, lay the most precious baby ever to be born.
