2. Suddenly they heard loud banging on the heavy wooden door downstairs. Angry voices burst inside. "Where are the two strangers?" the soldiers shouted. "We have a report that they were seen here!" Rahab's _____ thumped.
4. Rahab believed in the power of God. She never realized that she would be one of the great-grandmothers of Jesus. She probably didn't know that the scarlet _____ in her window would remind others of His saving blood.
5. FTWTF - Power Point
6. The two men set off on their errand. Before long Rahab her family were safely away from the crumbling ruins in a place outside the camp of the Israelites. Everyone in the house with the scarlet cord in the _____ had been saved.
8. Muttering angrily, the soldiers left. Rahab bolted the heavy door behind them. Quickly she ran up the _____ to the roof quietly called to the hidden spies.
9. _____ bearded men crept toward a big, wooden door in the shadows. Quietly they entered. They needed something to eat. But more than that, they wanted to listen to what the local people were saying.
10. [Wednesday's lesson] Read the rest of the story in Joshua 6:21-25. In your Bible study _____, list as many ways as you can think of in which Rahab & her family were like or unlike the treasure that was saved out of Jericho.
