11. The special guard, the priests with the horns & the ark, the rear guard, & all the tribes marched around the entire city of Jericho seven times. When they had completed the ____ trip around, Joshua commanded "Shout! For the Lord has given you the city!"
12. The proud, walled city sat at the edge of a beautiful plain, filled with shady ____ & good things to eat. Horse-drawn chariots of war could be seen coming & going through the city gates. Inside the gates stood palaces & temples to the goddess of fertility.
13. Suddenly Joshua realized that someone was there with him. He looked up. A man with a drawn ____ stood just ahead of him. "Sir," Joshua spoke respectfully, "are you for us or for our enemy?"

1. [Thursday's lesson] Read Joshua 6:3-5. Think Why do you think Joshua was given these ____ for the battle?
2. "Lord, what message do You have for me, Your servant?" Joshua was sure that he was about to receive battle instructions from God. "First of all," the heavenly Commander announced, "take off your ____, because this is holy ground."

4. Think of a time a tough situation made you wonder how much God loved you. Maybe it was a hard time at ____ or in your own home. Joshua faced a rather large problem too. (See Joshua 5:13-6:20; Patriarchs & Prophets, pp. 487-498.)
5. Before Joshua lay the city of Jericho with its mighty walls. It would be impossible to get over the walls or march through the _____. He remembered that God had promised them the victory. Somehow God was going to conquer this land for them, one city at a time. But how?
8. "Remember," they reminded one another, "we're not to say a word or make a sound during the march. Only the ____ of the priests are to be heard."
