He called to one brother at a time, hoping one of them would soften a little & at least lower him something to eat. But Joseph might as well have been calling to the wind. 9. A little while later Reuben came wandering back to camp, still hoping to find the right opportunity to rescue Joseph & send him back to their father. He stopped by the well & looked down. "He's gone! What am I to do now? What will I tell Father?" he yelled, tearing his robe. 12. [Thursday's lesson] Find a Bible with a concordance or marginal ____ in it. Find as many texts as you can about honesty & truth (if you have a Bible with marginal references, start with your power text). | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. As the brothers were eating, one of them noticed something coming their way far off on the horizon. Two of them jumped up, curious to see what it was. 2. "It's a caravan!" one brother shouted. From the direction it was heading, it must be on its way to Egypt, they reasoned. 3. The other brothers were pleased with themselves & sat down to eat the meal they had been preparing. Joseph, bruised, scared, & hungry, sat in the dark musty well with the cooking smells drifting down to him. 5. "What! I wouldn't sell you a sick sheep for that price!" said one brother, as he argued with the slave trader. "And I wouldn't buy your whole flock for that price, let alone one slave," retorted the buyer. 6. [Friday's lesson] If you are able to, talk with your family about a situation in which you may have felt like you were treated unfairly. Or confess to God about a lie you may have _____. If you feel that it is safe to do so, confess to your family as well. 8. FTWTF - Title 10. The next thing Joseph knew, he was being dragged through the sand by men from the caravan. They tied him to their other slaves. The ropes bit into his wrists sharply. 11. "Calm down!" the brothers told Reuben. "With this bloodstain on his robe, Father is sure to think that a wild animal attacked & killed Joseph. We'll just say that we found it along the way, blowing in the wind as it dangled from a bush near the road." |
