1. FTWTF - Power Text
2. A tall, handsome man in his late 20s strode briskly toward Potiphar's main house. He was well built, with ____ that were accustomed to being active. He walked proudly, as if he were in charge of everything around him.
3. [Friday's lesson] Read Psalm 119:1-16. Discuss what this chapter tells you about God's ____.
4. He knew that God would continue to be with him in this new trial. Joseph would continue to love the Lord his God with all his ____ & respect those around him.
5. FTWTF - Power Point
6. That night Joseph wondered what would happen next. Things had gone so well for so long. He had grown from a simple foreign slave boy to the chief ____ & accountant of this grand household.
7. FTWTF - Title
8. He knew every plant on each of the beautiful garden balconies. He knew how many slaves it took to cook a luscious dinner & serve it on golden tableware with a background of live musical ____.
9. Actually Joseph had been a ____ in Potiphar's household for 10 hard years now. At first he had been just one of the many slaves who worked in the extremely rich & complicated household.
10. [Thursday's lesson] Read Proverbs 3:1-8. Imagine that these verses are a ____ from God to you. In your Bible study journal, write a letter back to God, responding to His request.
11. Visibly shaken, Potiphar's head sank. If Joseph was telling the truth, then his wife would appear to be a liar. Potiphar had only two choices. He must have Joseph either killed or put in ____.
12. Joseph stepped from the bright Egyptian ____ onto the handwoven rugs of the cool interior of the main house. He was well acquainted with all three stories with their polished, hand-carved furniture.
