- "That's true," Mrs. Andrews agreed. "Justice would have been served if Joseph had put his brothers in prison or even _____ them as slaves. But Joseph believed that God was leading in his life. Listen to what he told them. 'Don't be angry with yourselves that you did this to me, for God did it. He sent me here to keep you & your families alive so that you will become a great nation.' [See Genesis 45:5-8.] I think Joseph could forgive the great wrongs his brothers committed because he could see God working in his life."
- "OK," Mrs. Andrews, the teacher, began, "picture this. It's a hot, hot day. Hot & VERY _____. So _____ that the moisture just seems to be sucked right out of your skin."
- "Joseph certainly had the _____ to do whatever he wanted to them," Trevor said. "After all, they sold him to be a slave. It was like kidnapping."
- "I know! I know what you're going to say!" he exclaimed. "You're going to say that this story is in the _____ to help us get a better picture of God & how He treats us!"

- [Sunday's lesson] Write the word forgiven across the top of a piece of _____. Beneath it, copy the power text. Add an attractive border & place the _____ where you will see it often.
- FTWTF - Power Point
- "Joseph forgave his brothers; he gave them food; he gave them a home in Egypt, & he took care of them all during the _____. It does sort of make one think of God, doesn't it?"

- [Monday's lesson] Read Genesis 42. Make a photocopy of a _____ of yourself or draw a picture of yourself. On the photocopy or picture, see if you can draw some changes that would make you unrecognizable to your own family.
- "Joseph looks up from the documents he has been sealing. He looks out at the line of people waiting to buy _____. People are coming to Egypt from all over the world, it seems. And the line gets longer every day."
- Mrs. Andrews smiled her special _____. The one that covered her face when she was especially pleased with what someone had said. "I think you've hit upon a really important point," she said.

- "I've got it," Matthew said. " " "So then, don't be afraid. I will provide for you & your _____." And he reassured them & spoke kindly to them' " [NIV].
