5. But when they looked at Jesus, they noticed how calm He was. He was not sad, as He had been the night before. Peace shone from His face. Jesus knew that He was going to die, but that His death would pay the ____ for the world's sins.
6. They had never seen Him like this, so sad & withdrawn. At the entrance to the garden Jesus said, "Wait here for a while. I'm going over there to pray." He motioned for Peter, James, & ____ to go with Him.
7. [Tuesday's lesson] Read Matthew 26:36-38. Ask three people how they know God has led them in their service for others. Ask them what their favorite ____ is.
8. Judas crept through the dark, quiet streets to the ____ of the high priest Caiaphas. He was surprised to be confronted by small groups of priests arguing & discussing something heatedly. What was going on?
10. Jesus told the three disciples to stop. "I am going a bit farther; stay here & pray with Me." Jesus went a little farther & fell to the ground. He felt the sins of the world were ____ Him from His Father.
12. He smiled when He thought that through His death the whole world could live forever if they ____ in & accepted Him as their Savior. Jesus knew that the pain He would experience would be worth it if just one person decided to follow Him.
13. Peter woke with a start & looked up. Jesus looked sad & said, "Couldn't you stay awake with Me for an hour?" Peter rubbed his eyes. Jesus continued, "Be careful that you do not give in to _____. You are willing to follow Me, but your bodies are weak."
