6. [Friday's lesson] Repeat the power text. How many times does this verse use the word _____?
7. Suddenly the darkness & the cloud lifted. The Israelites' tent city had disappeared! They looked in disbelief. Then they saw the _____ through the sea. Fear & panic were replaced by anger at the thought of their slaves escaping their grasp.
9. God told Moses, "Lift up your staff over the sea, & I will make the waters _____. I will make an escape path for you & all the people."
10. The news spread like wildfire through the camp & with it panic. The Egyptian army had been _____ on the horizon. The people went to Moses complaining, "At least in Egypt we had good food. Why have you brought us here to die? It was a hard life in Egypt, but at least we were alive, which will be more than we can say when Pharaoh arrives. Maybe we should go back."
11. As God spoke, the large pillar of _____ that had been leading the people began to move over them & placed itself between the Israelites & the advancing Egyptians.
12. [Monday's lesson] Read Exodus 14:1-20. _____ that you are a reporter traveling with Moses. In your Bible study journal, write a news report about the events in the verses you just read.

1. Being a slave was pretty grim, but was living in the desert any better? At least in Egypt they had food & shelter. They began to _____ among themselves.
