- Joshua looked up at the hill that overlooked the valley where they waited. He could see Moses, his brother Aaron, & Hur reaching the top of the hill. He watched as Moses _____ his arms in prayer to God. Joshua smiled confidently.
- As long as they stayed in worshipful connection with Him, as Moses had _____ all day with his arms raised, God would defeat whatever danger or enemy was threatening to defeat them.
- One morning Moses summoned Joshua, one of the young Israelite _____, "Choose some of our strongest & bravest men & go out to fight the Amalekites. Tomorrow I will stand on top of the hill with the staff of God in my hands."
- [Thursday's lesson] Read Exodus 17:14-16. Find Rephidim on a Bible map. Do you have a "_____" where God won a battle for you? Where is it?

- The Israelites were still camped at Rephidim, where God had provided _____ from a rock. The sea had parted for them. The quail had settled in their camp to provide them with supper. The manna had started appearing every morning-double on Friday. Still they asked, "Is the Lord among us or not?"
- After he showed Joshua the words, he put the scroll away with the jar of manna. These things would always be nearby to remind the people, who _____ so easily, what God had done for them.
- Sometimes they tended to take His daily cloud presence & His daily manna supply for _____. "Moses," God told His faithful servant that night, "write this on a scroll as something to be remembered & make sure that Joshua reads it, because I will completely blot out the memory of Amalek from under heaven."
- The two men took a place on either side of the leader, supporting his arms in supplication & _____ to God. Sure enough, the battle started to go in favor of the Israelites.
- "Aaron & Hur quickly saw what Moses was talking about. Aaron immediately formulated a plan. "Here is a _____. We will push it over for you to sit on, & then Hur & I will each hold up one of your arms."
