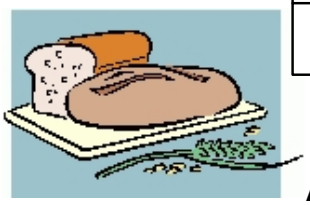
Power Text

"Surely God is my salvation; I will trust & not be afraid. The Lord, the Lord, is my strength & my song; he has become my salvation" Isaiah 12:2, NIV



Across

1. The one called Philip looked at Him as if He were ____ & asked, "Where can we buy enough bread to feed everyone?" I wondered that too. The nearest village was miles away, & there were far more people here than in most villages! And it would have taken seven months' wages to pay for it all.
5. I don't know how long we stood there listening to Him. He gave us so much hope-unlike the priests & rulers. Even the little children didn't fuss. Suddenly I noticed that the sun was sinking in the west. My ____ started to growl. I heard the disciples telling Jesus that we needed to leave so we could eat. Jesus said the strangest thing to them, "Give them something to eat."

11. "Do you think He can hear you?" the traveler laughed. "It can't hurt," the fisherman muttered. Suddenly one of the children said, "Mama, ____."
12. [Tuesday's lesson] Remember the best ____ you ever had. What made it special?
13. "How much food can you find among the people?" Jesus asked. His followers started to fan out & look. I looked down. I had been so busy listening to Jesus, I had ____ about my net bag with bread & fish! At that same moment the follower called Andrew looked at it too.

Down

2. "I want Him to bless my children," said a woman with three small children clinging to her ____. "They have no father, & I want to raise them in the fear & admonition of the Lord."
3. "We saw Him a little while ago," said a man who smelled like the sea. "My brother followed Him in our boat. I walked this way hoping to meet Him." "Where could He be?" asked a man in fine ____ clothes. "I have to see Him before I go to Jerusalem for Passover."
4. "Why, it's only five barley rolls & two small ____," Andrew said, incredulous. "How are we going to feed all these people with this?"
7. [Thursday's lesson] When the people went home they shared the ____ food & what they had learned. Plan to share what Jesus has done in your life with someone today.
