Lesson 11 - Measuring Up

Year C – 3rd Quarter

Power Text

"The grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all. . . . It teaches us to say 'No' to ungodliness & worldly passions, & to live self-controlled, upright & godly lives in this present age"
Titus 2:11, 12, NIV

Across

3. And he would have to be a real ____- an ambassador for God-to deal with the different groups. He would have to be nearly perfect in following the truth.
9. FTWTF - PowerPoint
10. " 'His children must be ____.' " This was even harder. Many of the members had children who had been corrupted by false teachers & worshiped other gods.
11. False teaching & teachers were probably the biggest problems the believers faced. It wasn't just in Crete. It was everywhere. But there were many Jews in Crete, both inside & outside the church. The ones inside the church tried to place a lot of ____ on the new members. Some wanted every non-Jew to be circumcised.
12. "Paul sent a long list of ____ for elders," Titus explained when the people assembled. "Maybe you should read them one by one so we can compare them with the people we know," said one man.

2. [Thursday's lesson] Create a ____ or song expressing your desire to live a life that praises God.
4. And when he had to set people straight, he would have to be very ____. He had to know how to say things so that he didn't drive people away or keep them from joining. Being an elder carried awesome responsibilities.
5. Finally, someone spoke. "Paul raises the standard very high. I think we should all follow this standard as Christians even if we are not elders. It would make for a much calmer church, & we would be better ____."
6. "This will be hard," he murmured. Some of the men had more than one wife or weren't faithful even to one. Others treated their wives like ____.
