1. At dinner things got even worse. Derrick helped himself to the best of everything. Then he either ignored everyone else or interrupted their conversation to ___ or complain about something. Serifa & Shawn became quieter & quieter as the meal progressed.

5. [Wednesday's lesson] Read 1 Corinthians 13 again. Think of something particularly unselfish that you can do for someone today (such as spending free time helping someone). Before you do it, ask God to make sure you will not be a "clanging ___" when you do it.

7. When they finished eating, Mrs. Bell ___ that she & Derrick had to leave to visit Derrick's grandmother in the hospital. Derrick said nothing, just headed for the car without a backward glance.

10. "Because if you don't, I'll tell Mom you broke her favorite ____. By the way, she said you're supposed to wash the dishes." "That's your job!" Shawn shouted, sitting up straight.

11. After he found the place, Dad read, "Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not ____; it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking; it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres' [1 Corinthians 13:3-8, NIV]."

6. "So what's the lesson here?" asked Mom, her eyes still closed. "Love is _____. Or I was," Serifa paused. "And Shawn is not as bad as I thought. Really," Serifa continued, curling her feet under her. "After being around Derrick, I know Shawn & I should be nicer to one another."
