Across

Down

- "Well, we're almost to Iconium," said Barnabas, looking around as they headed through the small merchant stalls on the outskirts of the town. "Let's ask for directions to the Jewish ____."
- They would preach first at the synagogue, where there would be people, even ____, who were already looking for the coming of the Messiah. The synagogue worshippers were pleased to have visitors who had come from Jerusalem with messages to share.
- FTWTF - Power Text
- Whenever the town authorities called Paul & Barnabas, or any of their followers, in for questioning, they found that their answers were clear & _____. They couldn't press any charges.
- [Tuesday's lesson] Read Acts 14:2-7. How do you think Paul & Barnabas felt when opposition against them arose? Type "religious persecution" in an Internet search _____. Pray for people in countries where they are persecuted for preaching about Jesus.
- Their trek east over the ____ from Antioch had been a tiring one. Paul looked up as if he had just now realized he wasn't alone.
- FTWTF - Power Point
- Many of the Jewish leaders did not believe that this ____ message about the Messiah was true. Some of them were jealous that so many people were listening to Paul & accepting the good news.
- [Sunday's lesson] Locate ____ on a map in your Bible. Pray that God will give you the wisdom to serve those who are prejudiced against Jesus' teachings.
- Wherever people were interested in hearing about Jesus, Paul & Barnabas shared. But not everyone at the synagogue, nor everyone in every home or every business, felt the same way about their ____.
- Finally the Jewish leaders who were so jealous & ____ decided to do something about the situation themselves. They got an ignorant noisy mob who didn't really understand what was going on & created a huge riot.
- Paul & Barnabas did as their friends suggested. They left before the angry mob could ____ them. But they would be back. The good news was too wonderful to keep to themselves.
- They were especially furious when God blessed Paul & Barnabas's work with ____ to show that He was with them. Leaders opposed to the new message kept going to the authorities of the town.
