- FTWTF - Power Point
- Uriah was faithful & dedicated to both God & his fellow _____. That made David look bad.
- Even though David was forgiven, there was still no way to undo all the _____ & loss that had taken place & would still take place in the future.
- FTWTF - Title
- "Go home & relax," David encouraged Uriah. He hoped that Uriah would go home to his wife. But Uriah did not go to his home, he slept at the _____ of the palace with Joab's servants instead.
- "Go home & relax," David encouraged Uriah. He hoped that Uriah would go home to his wife. But Uriah did not go to his home, he slept at the _____ of the palace with Joab's servants instead.
- David was the most powerful man in all of Israel. He was the king of both Israel & Judah. In addition to this, David was strong, handsome, & very _____.
- David understood, however; he stopped _____ & pleading with God.
- David thought he had gotten himself out of the mess he had made. But God _____ him too much to let him continue down this path away from Himself. God sent the prophet Nathan to confront David with his sin.
- When David asked him why he hadn't gone home, Uriah answered, "My commanding officers & all of the soldiers are camped out in _____ in a field. Even God's ark is in a tent. It wouldn't be right for me to enjoy the luxuries of home & the company of my wife when our people are at war."
