FTWTF means:
Find The Word That Fits

- FTWTF - Title
- Abraham might have thought that would solve his problem, but he was mistaken. Disregarding God's plan for his _____ was disastrous. .
- Abraham & Sarah lived at a time when a large family was a great honor. But at the age of _____ they were still childless. By then they had probably given up on having children.
- "Go back to Sarah, your mistress," he said. "Submit to her. You will have a son, whom you will name Ishmael." So Hagar returned, & Ishmael was _____. At long last Abraham had a child, a son whom he loved, & things seemed to settle down.
- [Tuesday's lesson] Read Genesis 16:5-6. Who is passing the buck? Who won't take responsibility for their actions? Who runs away? Who vents her anger? Write some modern _____ to these people in your Bible study journal.
- Even though he lived among heathens who thought nothing of marrying several wives, until now Abraham had not _____ their customs. It was common not only for a man to have more than one wife, but also for a woman who didn't have children to give her servant to her husband.
- "Take my servant girl, Hagar, as your _____," Sarah said to Abraham. "She will have that son for you."
- FTWTF - Power Text
- [Monday's lesson] Read Genesis 16:5-6. Search the _____ & find a story in which people have chosen to solve a problem their way rather than God's way.
- FTWTF - Power Point
- The Bible doesn't tell us how long Abraham thought about the _____; however, we can be sure he didn't ask God about the plan. He was desperate.
- "No," said God. "Your own son will be your heir. Your children will be as many as the _____, for I will make of you a great nation." So they waited & waited & waited some more.
- Sarah was certainly angry. Jealous. Even mean. The Bible says she mistreated Hagar, & Hagar ran away to the desert. Out there in the desert, near a spring, an _____ found Hagar all alone.
