| 2. In modern terms, that means do the work you do for your parents, your _____, your boss, - whoever it is - as if you were doing it for Christ. Kind of puts a new slant on whatever it is you hate doing most, doesn't it? 5. "Obey your _____ masters with . . . sincerity of heart," wrote Paul (Ephesians 6:5, NIV). Sincerity of heart. That means honestly. Genuinely. Because you mean it, not just because you have to. 6. Since _____ is no longer legal anywhere in the world, you might be tempted to just skip over what Paul had to say on the subject. 7. FTWTF - Power Text 11. It was a tough life, but not an uncommon one, so it's not surprising that Paul talked directly to slaves in several places in his letters, & even wrote the entire letter of _____ to a slave owner about his slave. 12. In the early years after Jesus' death, many _____ were slaves. The good news of salvation has always struck a note with those who are the most hopeless, & who is more hopeless than a slave? 3. FTWTF - Power Point 4. [Friday's lesson] Talk with your family about what it means to be a _____. Share with your family what you have learned about service this week. 8. Imagine what that kind of enthusiastic _____ could do. Imagine the witness. Out of 100 angry, sullen, do-enough-to-get-by slaves, one is willing, even cheerful. One is pleasant & upbeat. One is faithful & trustworthy & dedicated & a motivated self-starter. Do you think the master will notice? I'd say so. It's happened before. Think of Joseph & Naaman's slave girl. 9. But even though we are in little _____ of being bought, sold, or owned by someone else, there will always be other people to whom we must answer. 10. [Tuesday's lesson] Read 1 Corinthians 9:19. How can you make _____ a slave to everyone in order to win them to Christ? |
