5. “Today you will have to make a _____. Each of you is going to have to decide who is God once and for all. Will it be Baal or the Lord God? Make up your minds. You can't have both,” said Elijah.
8. As the men left to find the bulls, Elijah turned to the prophets. “You need to build an _____. I'm going to repair the Lord's altar. You'd better get started so you're ready when the bulls arrive.” Men came and went carrying and piling up the stones.
9. [Monday's lesson] Read 1 Kings 18:1-15. ____ God for the ways He provides for your daily needs.
10. It hadn't ____ for three years in Israel. Everybody knew that it had to do with a prophet named Elijah. He was the one who had told King Ahab that it wouldn't rain until God said it would.

12. “Bring me two young _____,” Elijah told a group of men nearby. “I am the only prophet of the Lord left. But Baal has 450 prophets. We'll call upon our gods and see whose will answer.”
1. “Choose a bull and kill it,” Elijah instructed the priests of Baal. “Lay it on the altar but don't ____ a fire. I'll do the same thing.”
2. [Thursday's lesson] Read 1 Kings 18:30-35. Pray for ____ to say yes to God's call to you today.
4. Elijah teased, “Maybe Baal is _____. Or maybe he's gone on a trip.” Growing more frenzied, the screaming priests slashed their bodies trying to get Baal's attention. Finally in late afternoon the priests gave up and fell down exhausted.
6. “I need four _____ of water.” He assigned several people to go and fill the _____. When they returned from their errand, Elijah commanded them, “Pour it on the sacrifice. Then go and fill them up again.”
