As she turned to leave with her full pitcher on her shoulder, Jesus spoke. "Would you give Me something to _____?" He asked simply. That was a request she couldn't refuse. 8. She knew that her life was a mess. But she really didn't want to talk about it. "Sir, I think you must be a _____," she said, really meaning it. But she also wanted to change the subject. 9. She had her own _____, her own rope. She let the _____ down, down, down, & Jesus could hear it splash as it reached the water. He was silent. She was silent. 11. [Thursday's lesson] Read John 4:16-20. How do you think the woman felt when Jesus told her about her _____? What did she do instead of answering Him? What could Jesus ask you to show you that He knows you? 12. FTWTF - Power Text | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. FTWTF - Power Point 2. She didn't feel quite sure of herself. But all she could see was a tired Jewish traveler. "Are you more important or more powerful than _____, the one who gave us this well & its water?" she asked. 3. [Sunday's lesson] Ask God to help you keep to a _____ for your personal devotions this week. 4. The woman could feel the "water of life" starting to spring up inside her. Leaving her water pitcher by the well, she hurried toward the _____ to call her neighbors to come & hear what she had heard. 5. FTWTF - Title 7. Jesus continued. "The water I would give you would satisfy you, & you would never be thirsty again. In fact, it would be like a _____ gurgling all the time inside you. You'd never go dry." 10. "In fact," He continued, "you have had _____ husbands, and the man you live with now isn't really your husband." |
