13. But best of all, you'll be able to use your talents to share God's ____ with others.

1. The manager with the $5,000 went to work right away. He bought new ____ for the company & created a new business. The new business brought in $5,000 more.
2. [Friday's lesson] Review & update your list of talents. Choose one to develop. List ____ things you can do to develop that talent. Dedicate this special talent to God.
3. Like the business owner, God has gifted you with talents & ____, gifts to develop & use in the best way you can. This makes God happy. If you develop your talents, God will bless you with many more.
4. "You did what?" shouted the owner, standing up & knocking over his _____. "I . . . I . . . said I put it in the safe," said the manager, looking confused. "And I . . ."
5. [Tuesday's lesson] Read Matthew 25:14-30. Which person would you have been in the story? Plan a way that you can use one of your talents at family ____ or to help a friend or relative in need.
7. The owner pushed a button & bellowed a message to his secretary. "Tell ____ to send someone up to throw this slacker out of my office!" The ____ officers came immediately & whisked away the third manager.
8. The second manager handed him a check. "Sir, I was able to do some ____ on the stock market. I made another $2,000. Here is the check for $4,000 made out to you."
9. Just like the managers, you'll receive a ____ for being responsible.
