Power Point
God gives us wisdom so we can serve others.

Power Text
"Choose my instruction instead of silver, knowledge rather than choice gold, for wisdom is more precious than rubies, & nothing you desire can compare with her"
Proverbs 8:10, 11, NIV

- [Thursday's lesson] Read 1 Kings 3:14, 15. What ____ was there to God's final gift to Solomon? Why do you think He made the last gift conditional?
- FTWTF - Power Text
- The young steward whistled softly at the elegant robes & glittering ____ Solomon wore.
- The young steward got up & pulled them back to reveal a small area with two ____.
- "Wiser. And he's talented in other ways, too," said the special events chief. "He's written ____,000 proverbs & songs, & he knows everything about plants & animals."
- With a blast of ____, King Solomon entered the room, followed by his personal attendants.
- FTWTF - Power Point
- "God was very pleased that Solomon asked for wisdom. He told Solomon, 'You will be so wise that there will never have been anyone like you & there never will be again. You could have asked for a lot of other things, but you didn't. So I am going to give you the things you didn't ask for-wealth & _____. If you obey me as your father did, I will give you a long life, too.'"
- "That's right. He knew that God had been ____ to his father, David, even though he made mistakes. Solomon felt he needed guidance to be a good king. So he asked for wisdom to rule the people," replied the chief.
- [Tuesday's lesson] Read 1 Kings 3:5-9. Do you think Solomon even thought of other ____ to ask God for? How much wisdom did Solomon show in asking for "wisdom"?
- "Here's the last plant from the palace garden," a young steward said. His muscles strained with the weight of the leafy plant in the heavy pot. "Where do you want it?" "You can place it over there, opposite the other one," said King Solomon's special events chief. He pointed toward the ____.
- Solomon climbed the steps to his throne & seated himself. Two attendants arranged his red & golden robes. Another handed him his _____. At last he was ready to receive his guests.
