Power Text
If anyone wants to be first, he must be the very last, & the servant of all.
Mark 9:35, NIV

Across

- FTWTF - Power Point
- When their predictions didn't come true, they agreed loudly among themselves that he must be a god. One of them slipped away. I assumed to tell their ruler. That man didn't return, but someone who I thought might be a ____ of the ruler soon came.
- A servant bowed quickly & whispered into his ear. Publius's ____ changed into an anxious frown. He jumped up & excused himself.
- Watching Paul serve the people of Malta despite his ____ status & poor health proved to me that we can serve God- & others- regardless of our circumstances.
- FTWTF - Title
- Publius ____ us for coming. We could see the question on his face. Paul told Publius he would like to pray for his father.
- Publius introduced his father to Paul as the one who had healed him. Paul started to object, but his ____ was overruled by their thanks. Paul again directed them to the living God as the healer.
- We stayed with him for three ____ days. The last evening we were there, during dinner, we heard rapid footsteps coming from behind us.

Down

- After our ship ran aground, the ____ ordered everyone off. Paul & I clung to pieces of the ship & allowed ourselves to be washed ashore.
- He spoke directly to Paul about his experience with the _____. He wanted to know if it was true that it didn't affect him. When Paul replied yes, Publius asked Paul if it was true then that he was a god.
- [Wednesday's lesson] Read Acts 28:7-9. How did Paul give the ____ what they needed most? What can you do?
- [Friday's lesson] Read Matthew 20:26-28. Ask God to give you a ____ heart.
