1. [Friday's lesson] Do you think the thief on the cross knew about Jesus beforehand, or believed in Him because of His ____ while being crucified? Ask Jesus to give you the strength to do His will even when you are in distress.
3. "How much are we concerned about other people when we are hurting with a ____, or a smashed finger, or the flu?"
6. Mr. Andrews took a large ____ onion from a bag & placed it on his desk. Then he turned to the class. "Sometimes I think the Bible is just like an onion," he announced.
7. "Take our story for today. It is the story of Jesus' crucifixion & _____. Now, this is the most important story in the whole Bible. Without Jesus' dying for our sins & rising again from the dead, there would be no hope for any of us. We would be forever lost. That, of course, is the main focus of the story. But let's look beneath the obvious & see if we can discover another layer of understanding this morning."

11. [Thursday's lesson] Read Luke 23:50-54. What ____ did Joseph of Arimathea take in asking for the body of Jesus?
12. Mr. Andrews perched on the edge of his _____. "Let's consider some of the last things Jesus said. Picture the scene in your mind."

2. "Jesus' friends even took care of Him after He died. Joseph of Arimathea claimed His body & buried Him in his own personal _____. The women went to anoint His body."
4. "Many of them followed Him and were there at the ____ with Him. Do you think a dying person would be comforted to have their friends close by?"
5. Jesus is hanging there stripped of His clothing, covered with ____ & sweat, & every breath is practically impossible.
8. "How else is the Bible like an onion?" Mr. Andrews continued. Trevor raised his hand. "Onions have _____," he suggested."
