Across

1. FTWTF - Title
4. [Friday's lesson] Read Ephesians 2:8-10. Take a walk in some ____ surroundings-in a park, perhaps. Observe as many things as possible that could be considered gifts from God to you.
7. Of course He could! Her very own child! What she wanted more than anything else in the whole world! ____ stung Sarah's eyes as she stepped back into the privacy of her tent.
8. Abraham made sure his guests were comfortably seated, & then he hurried back into the tent. "Sarah," he said, "be quick! Get some of the best flour & bake some ____."
10. The animals lay bunched together in the shade, their tails flicking away the occasional fly. Even the birds were quiet, resting. Abraham sat in the doorway of his ____. His eyes were heavy. But something caught his half-closed eyes.

Down

2. When the food was ready, Abraham himself served the men. Cheese curds, ____, & roasted meat. He had given them the very best food he had.
3. She ____ to herself when she heard the Stranger's words. For 25 years Abraham had told her over & over that she would have a son. She used to have hope. But she was 89 years old now!
5. "Yes, you did," the Stranger replied kindly. Because He was who He was, He couldn't let a ____ slip by. But He could forgive one.
6. [Tuesday's lesson] Read Genesis 18:9-16. Sometimes we may ____ to ask God for some blessings because they seem impossible.
8. How can an old woman like me have a ____? she thought. Suddenly Sarah stiffened. "Why did Sarah laugh?" the Stranger asked Abraham.
9. "Sirs," he said, "please do not pass by my home without stopping; I am here to serve you. Let me bring some ____ for you to wash your feet; you can rest here beneath this tree."
