1. "One day King David was ____. He was remembering his very best friend, Jonathan. Jonathan had been dead for a long time now. Probably 20 years or so. But David had never, ever had another friend who was so close. Suddenly he asked himself, 'Is there anybody at all left from Saul's family? If there is, I would like to show them kindness for Jonathan's sake.'
2. "And it must have been a lot of land," Mr. Andrews continued, "because King David ordered Ziba & his sons & his servants to ____ it & take care of it for Mephibosheth & his family. And Ziba had 15 sons & 20 servants!
3. "But my guess is that he was also thinking about the custom of kings to kill each member of the defeated king's family. He probably reported to the ____ with a lot of fear in his heart."
5. "I will give you back all the l& that belonged to your grandfather Saul, & you will always be welcome at my ____."
7. One minute had nothing. The next minute he was rich. The owner of a lot of l& & a very special guest at the king's table! He probably had to pinch himself to see if he was ____.
8. "I am sure he had heard the stories about what great friends his father Jonathan & King David had been. He had been ____ years old when his father died, you know."
9. "OK," Mr. Andrews said, "who can remind us what '____' is?" Trevor's hand shot up. He didn't even wait to be called on. "Kindness given to someone who doesn't deserve it," he answered.
