5. The very air glowed. And a ____ of fire pulled by horses of fire whooshed between them. It snatched up Elijah, but his cloak fell from him back to the ground.
6. He wanted a ____ portion. Not a ____ portion of riches. Elijah had no riches. But Elijah had God's Spirit upon him. Elisha knew that if he could receive a ____ portion of this Spirit, he would truly be Elijah's successor.
7. The sun was higher & hotter now. They stepped off the road to make way for a long caravan of merchants. Tall ____ stepping haughtily. Drivers joking with each other.
10. When they arrived in Bethel, some of the students from the ____ of the prophets surrounded Elisha. "Do you know that the Lord is going to take your master today?" they whispered excitedly. "Do you know?"
12. [Wednesday's lesson] Read 2 Kings 2:1-15. Have you ever been handed down a special family ____? If not, ask the adults in your family if they have. How did you or they feel when you were given that gift?
13. Elijah took Elisha aside. "The Lord has told me to go to the Jordan _____," he said, "but you might as well stay here." Was that a twinkle Elisha saw deep in his master's eyes? Elisha shook his head.
1. So they walked on & talked as old friends do. Elisha tucked away every word Elijah said to him. Suddenly a wild ____ began to blow.
2. Everybody, even those who did not worship the God of Israel, recognized Elijah-the fierce figure in a ____-____ cloak & thick leather belt. And they would then also recognize the younger man with him.
3. He watched the water of the river divide-just as when his ancestors had crossed this very same river to enter the Promised Land. Elisha followed Elijah across the river, hesitating for only a moment to drag the toe of his ____ in the dust. Dust!
