Across

2. Immediately Jesus set out for the officer's home. Slowly He made His way on foot through the dense ____.
3. But Jesus hadn't gotten very far when the Roman officer's ____ came to Him, "Lord, don't worry about coming to my house. I'm not even worthy of a visit from You.
4. FTWTF - Power Text
6. The centurion's humble message didn't ____ Jesus, though. He just kept on going, heading straight for the officer's house.
7. [Wednesday's lesson] Read Matthew 8:14-15. Look through the Bible & find five other ____ of healing that Jesus performed.
8. FTWTF - Power Point
10. I know that You have the same kind of authority over disease & ____. Just as my soldiers obey me, the deadly disease must obey Your command. Just speak the word, Lord, & I am sure that my servant will be healed."
11. He thinks very highly of us, so much so that he even built us a ____. You've got to help this man!" they exclaimed.

Down

1. FTWTF - Title
2. Unlike some Roman officers, this ____ didn't treat his servants cruelly. In fact, the servant had become like a family member, & he was saddened at the thought that his servant might die.
5. [Friday's lesson] Mark 10:46-52 Act out the Bible story with your family for worship tonight. Write down how most slaves have been treated throughout ____.
6. Because of that Roman officer's faith, his ____ was blessed with the healing touch of Jesus. But the blessings didn't stop there. As long as this story is told, over & over through the years, the blessings will keep coming.
9. When the Roman soldier returned ____, he found that, just as Jesus had promised, his servant was indeed healed, completely well, & ready to continue his work.
