- One more short stop, & he would visit his old friend Philip the evangelist & his _____ in Caesarea. Then he would go on to Jerusalem, where he knew God was directing him, even though his friends had warned him of danger.
- Philip had explained the Scripture & then baptized the man. Now Philip's daughters preached & _____ & helped the church as well. They were a family dedicated to God. Paul was looking forward to enjoying their hospitality for a few days.
- Paul had once been mistaken for _____, the chief speaker for the Greek gods. Actually, Paul had been the chief speaker for Jesus.
- Paul didn't know what lay ahead for him, but he knew that God had _____ the believers with many different gifts. Each gift was to be used to administer God's grace to others.
- [Tuesday's lesson] Acts 21:7-14. Think of a way to use the gift of _____ to serve someone this week.
- But he was not the only one God was using to build the early church. Many people with many different _____ were joining God in His work to bring the gospel of grace & the truth about Jesus to everyone.
- [Friday's lesson] Read 1 Corinthians 13 with your family during worship. _____ ways to combine your gifts to do a family service project. Let family members add their gifts to your chain.
- "This is a message from the Holy Spirit. The owner of this _____ will have his hands & feet shackled by the Jews in Jerusalem letting me know ahead of time what to expect. But I can't turn back."
