- Jesus will say, "Whatever you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for me" (verse 45). They will be turned away, because in _____, everyone cares about everyone else.
- I needed clothes & you did not clothe me, I was sick & in _____ & you did not look after me" (verses 42, 43).
- [Thursday's lesson] Read Malachi 3:17, 18. Write a letter of encouragement to someone who is doing a _____, but necessary, service for others.
- So it made sense first of all that the shepherd could easily tell the animals apart & second that the animals should be divided. Jesus was trying to illustrate that it's as easy for Him to tell the difference between people's _____ as it is for us to tell the difference between sheep & goats.
- [Monday's lesson] Read Matthew 24:15-35. What did Jesus know about the future? Ask an adult to talk to you about Jesus' description of "the end of the age." What do the _____ indicate?
- Once the two categories of people are separated, Jesus will say to the "_____" the people who are so much like God, "Come, you who are blessed by my Father; take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world" (Matthew 25:34).
- Jesus said that when the Son of God comes to earth with His angels, He will assume His role as _____ & separate people into two simple categories: sheep & goats.
- The _____, on the other hand, aren't motivated by kindness. They are too busy looking out for themselves. They perform good works because it might make them look good. Or they think good deeds will buy their way into heaven.
- To the goats, Jesus will say, "I was hungry & you gave me nothing to eat, I was _____ & you gave me nothing to drink, I was a stranger & you did not invite me in ..."

- It was one of those days when Jesus had left His disciples openmouthed in the Temple. He had told the priests that He knew that they were plotting to kill Him & that they were as slithery as _____.
