- Ask Jesus to keep you safe & to give you the _____ to help & encourage those around you to make the right choice too.
- FTWTF - Power Text
- [Monday's lesson] Read Genesis 7:15, 16. Try to picture the animals going into the ark by themselves. How does this _____ reveal God's power? What does this picture tell about God's love & His desire to preserve a diverse animal life on earth?
- When the time came either to go in or to stay out of the ark, it had to be a _____ experience for them. As they watched their friends choose their own destiny, it hurt, because they loved those friends.
- They all had heard the warnings. They had had time to evacuate. But they chose to stay. And the people who loved them wished that those who died had made a different _____.
- The story of the Flood is one you've heard many times. We think about how Noah spent 120 years _____ the ark, how the animals entered the ark, & how Noah & his family were the only human beings who went in after he had preached & warned people for 120 years.
- FTWTF - Title
- During the horrible fury of the _____ everyone inside the ark was safe only because of the protection of God.
- [Thursday's lesson] Read 2 Timothy 1:3. What two methods of encouraging others does this verse suggest to you? _____ of someone for whom you can pray, & share with them that God has a rescue plan for all of us.
- FTWTF - Power Point
- It didn't have anything to do with the strength of the wood or how much _____ they had smeared on the bottom of the big boat. They were safe because God kept them that way.
- Noah was not the only one trying to convince people to come into the ark. As we discussed last week, every person who walked up that _____ had to make a choice whether or not to get on board.
- The next part of the story, the _____ part, we sometimes skim over. But that's what our story is about this week. The ugly time. The time God followed through with what He said would happen.
