Power Text
"So Moses & Aaron said to all the Israelites, 'In the evening you will know that it was the Lord who brought you out of Egypt, & in the morning you will see the glory of the Lord, because he has heard your grumbling against him. Who are we, that you should grumble against us?' "
Exodus 16:6, 7

Across

Down

- At twilight, just as God had told Moses, a large migrating flock of ____ covered the camp, & the Israelites, once again temporarily happy, stuffed themselves & forgot their fretting & frustrations.
- "It is the bread the Lord has given you to eat" (verse 15). God would provide this bread one day at a time, & the Israelites were to show their gratitude by carefully following God's simple instructions: "Everyone is to gather as much as they need. Take an omer [about two quarts (or two ____)] for each person you have in your tent" (verse 16).
- "____," Moses began, "is to be a day of sabbath rest, a holy sabbath to the Lord. So bake what you want to bake & boil what you want to boil. Save whatever is left & keep it until morning" (verse 23).
- The water had been ____; God had showed Moses how to make it sweet. But now they were facing the unknown again. Moses could hear their grumbling.

- And just as God had promised, there was plenty more on the ground for that day's needs. The people had to get out of bed & gather it before the sun got too hot & ____ it.
- [Wednesday's Lesson] Read Exodus 16:10. What are things that you ____ about to God? Write about them in your Bible study journal.
- FTWTF - Power Text
- Moses looked at the disappointed people walking back to their tents. When would they learn that they were to quiet their hearts in ____ when they had needs & problems?
- FTWTF - Power Point
- Then Moses proclaimed the next step of the instructions, "No one is to keep any of it until ____" (verse 19). God wanted to give them be any tomorrow, & they put some aside.
- [Thursday's Lesson] Read Exodus 16:27. Do you think the Israelites would have been happier if they had ____ God? In what ways?
- Moses looked out over the entire Israelite community camped on the edge of the Desert of Sin. Just days ago they had been enjoying a beautiful oasis with ____, palm trees, & all the water everyone could drink. They had been thirsty; God had provided water.
