2. "You know," her father said, "your mother would have been so happy." The girl nodded yes. Before her mother had died, she had made her husband ____ to take the good news to her family in Phoenicia.

4. Saul, the zealous young Pharisee was also in the crowd. Although he hadn't picked up so much as a ____, Saul was an attentive observer of the stoning of Stephen.

5. He couldn't believe what he had seen today. It was definitely a turning point for the followers of Jesus. He was beginning to understand how ____ the priests were against the believers.

6. The teenage girl was sure she was going to erupt. Standing outside the gate of Jerusalem, she leaned against a cart. Her stomach felt like a ____ that had been tied & soaked in water.

8. "Daughter," her father called. "Yes, Father," she replied. "Bring our guest some ____. We will be meeting here instead of at Philip's."

10. FTWTF - Power Point

11. [Monday's lesson] Read Acts 7:59, 60. Look up the word "martyr" in the ____. What does it mean? How can a dead person witness?

12. When they reached home, the father walked around to the back of the ____ to help his daughter. "Feeling better?" he asked. She just smiled at him. Her head & stomach felt like her own again. Suddenly she heard someone call her father's name.

© 2016 General Conference Sabbath School Department